PRESENTATION.

Perhaps to no one is Esperanto of more service than to the non-grammarian. It gives him for a minimum expenditure of time and money a valuable insight into the principles of grammar and the meaning of words, while enabling him, after only a few months of study, to get into communication with his fellow men in all parts of the world.

To place these advantages within easy reach of all is the aim of this little book. Written by an experienced teacher, revised by Mr. E. A. Millidge, and based on the exercises of Dr. Zamenhof himself, it merits the fullest confidence of the student, and may be heartily commended to all into whose hands it may come.

W. W. PADFIELD.

PREFACE.

This little book has been prepared in the hope of helping those who, having forgotten the lessons in grammar which they received at school, find some difficulty in learning Esperanto from the existing textbooks. It is hoped it will be found useful not only for solitary students, but also for class work.

The exercises are taken chiefly from the "Ekzercaro" of Dr. Zamenhof. The compiler also acknowledges her indebtedness especially to the "Standard Course of Esperanto," by Mr. G. W. Bullen, and to the "Esperanto Grammar and Commentary," by Major-General Geo. Cox, and while accepting the whole responsibility for all inaccuracies and crudenesses, she desires to thank all who have helped in the preparation, and foremost among them Mr. W. W. Padfield, of Ipswich, for advice and encouragement throughout the work, and to Mr. E. A. Millidge, for his unfailing kindness and invaluable counsel and help in its preparation and revision.

MANNER OF USING THE BOOK.

The student is strongly advised to cultivate the habit of thinking in Esperanto from the very beginning of the study. To do this he should try to realise the idea mentally without putting it into English words, e.g., when learning the word "rozo" or "kolombo," let him bring the object itself before his mind's eye, instead of repeating "'rozo', rose; 'kolombo', pigeon"; or with the sentence "'la suno brilas', the sun shines," let him picture the sun shining. Having studied the lesson and learned the vocabulary, he should read the exercise, repeating each sentence aloud until he has become familiar with it and can pronounce it freely. Then turning to the English translation at the end of the book, he should write the exercise into Esperanto, compare it with the original, and re-learn and re-write if necessary. Although this method may require a little more time and trouble at first, the greater facility gained in speaking the language will well repay the outlay.

After mastering this book the student should take some reader, such as "Unua Legolibro," by Dr. Kabe, and then proceed to the "Fundamenta Krestomatio," the standard work on Esperanto, by Dr. Zamenhof.

A very good Esperanto-English vocabulary is to be found in the "Esperanto Key," 1/2d., or in "The Whole of Esperanto for a Penny."

THE ORIGIN AND AIM OF ESPERANTO.

A few words as to the origin of Esperanto will perhaps not be out of place here. The author of the language, Dr. Ludovic Zamenhof, a Polish Jew, was born on December 3rd, 1859, at Bielovstok, in Poland, a town whose inhabitants are of four distinct races, Poles, Russians, Germans, and Jews, each with their own language and customs, and often at open enmity with each other. Taught at home that all men are brethren, Zamenhof found everywhere around him outside the denial of this teaching, and even as a child came to the conclusion that the races hated, because they could not understand, each other. Feeling keenly, too, the disabilities under which his people specially laboured, being cut off by their language from the people among whom they lived, while too proud to learn the language of their persecutors, he set himself to invent a language which should be neutral and therefore not require any sacrifice of pride on the part of any race.

Interesting as is the story of Zamenhof's attempts and difficulties, it must suffice here to say that at the end of 1878 the new language was sufficiently advanced for him to impart it to schoolfellows like-minded with himself, and on December 17th of that year they feted its birth, and sang a hymn in the new language, celebrating the reign of unity and peace which should be brought about by its means, "All mankind must be united in one family." But the enthusiasm of its first followers died down under the derision they encountered, and for nine years more Zamenhof worked in secret at his language, translating, composing, writing original articles, improving, polishing, till in 1887 he published his first book under the title of "An International Language by Dr. Esperanto." ("Esperanto" means "one who hopes").

That the idea which impelled the young Zamenhof to undertake such a work is still the mainspring of his devotion to the cause is shown by the following extract from his opening speech at the second International Esperanto Congress in 1906:--"We are all conscious that it is not the thought of its practical utility which inspires us to work for Esperanto, but only the thought of the important and holy idea which underlies an international language. This idea, you all know, is that of: brotherhood and justice among all peoples." And, again, in his presidential address at the third Esperanto Congress, held this year (1907) at Cambridge, he said, "We are constantly repeating that we do not wish to interfere in the internal life of the nations, but only to build a bridge between the peoples. The ideal aim of Esperantists, never until now exactly formulated, but always clearly felt, is: To establish a neutral foundation, on which the various races of mankind may hold peaceful, brotherly intercourse, without intruding on each other their racial differences."

Sur neuxtrala lingva fundamento,
Komprenante unu la alian,
La popoloj faros en konsento
Unu grandan rondon familian.

(On the foundation of a neutral language,
Understanding one another,
The peoples will form in agreement
One great family circle).

THE ALPHABET.

SOUNDS OF THE LETTERS.

In Esperanto each letter has only one sound, and each sound is represented in only one way. The words are pronounced exactly as spelt, every letter being sounded.

Those CONSONANTS which in English have one simple sound only are exactly the same in Esperanto; they are--b, d, f, k, l, m, n, p, r, t, v, z (r must be well rolled).

q, w, x, y are not used.

c, g, h, s, which in English represent more than one sound, and j are also used with the mark ^-- c cx, g gx, h hx, j jx, s sx.

c - (whose two English sounds are represented by k and s) has the sound of TS, as in iTS, TSar.

cx - like CH, TCH, in CHurCH, maTCH.

g - hard, as in Go, GiG, Gun.

gx - soft, as in Gentle, Gem, or like J in Just, Jew.

h - well breathed, as in Horse, Home, How.

hx - strongly breathed, and in the throat, as in the Scotch word loCH. (Ask any Scotsman to pronounce it). Hx occurs but seldom. It is the Irish GH in louGH, and the Welsh CH.

j - like Y in Yes, You, or J in halleluJah, fJord.

jx - like S in pleaSure, or the French J, as in deJeuner, Jean d'Arc.

s - like SS in aSS, leSS, never like S in roSe.

sx - like SH in SHe, SHall, SHip, or S in Sugar, Sure.

In newspapers, etc., which have not the proper type, cx, gx, hx, jx, sx are often replaced by ch, gh, hh, jh, sh, or by c', g', h', j', s', and ux by u.

ux - is also a consonant, and has the sound of W in We, as EUXropo, or U in persUade.

The VOWELS a, e, i, o, u have not the English, but the Continental sounds.

a - always like A in Ah! or in tArt.

e - like E in bEnd, but broader, like E in thEre.

i - is a sound between EE in mEEt and I in Is.

o - like O in fOr, or in the Scottish NO, or AU in AUght.

u - like OO in bOOt, pOOr.

a, e, i, o, u are all simple sounds, that is, the mouth is kept in one position while they are being sounded. In learning them lengthen them out, and be careful not to alter the position of the mouth, however long they are drawn out. In the compound sounds given below the shape of the mouth changes; to get the correct pronunciation sound each letter fully and distinctly, gradually bringing them closer until they run together, when they become almost as follows:-- aj - nearly like AI in Alsle, or I in nlce, flne.

ej - nearly like EI in vEln.

oj - nearly like OY in bOY, or OI in vOld.

uj - nearly like UJ in hallelUJah.

aux - like AHW, or nearly OU in hOUse, pronounced broadly, haOUse.

eux - like EHW, or EY W in thEY Were, AYW in wAYWard.

Practise saying aja, eja, oja, uja, auxa, euxa several times quickly. Then gradually drop the final a.

ACCENT.

The accent or stress is always placed on the syllable before the last, as es-PE-ro, es-pe-RAN-to, es-pe-ran-TIS-to, es-pe-ran-tis-TI-no; JU-na, ju-NU-lo, ju-nu-LA-ro. All the syllables must be clearly pronounced, not slurred over.

NOTE.--A useful mnemonic for the Esperanto vowels is pAr, pEAr, pIer, pORe, pOOr, but the sounds should not be dragged. It is helpful to note that the English words "mate, reign, pane, bend; meet, beat, feel, lady; grow, loan, soft; mute, yes, mule" (as pronounced in London and South of England), would be written in Esperanto thus:--"mejt, rejn, pejn, bend;
mijt, bijt, fijl, lejdi; groux, louxn, soft; mjut, jes, mjul".

LESSON 1.

WORDS.

In Esperanto a word generally consists of an unchanging part or root, which expresses the idea, and an ending which shows the use of the word, that is, whether it is a name, a describing word, etc. By changing the ending the use of the word is changed.

Notice carefully the words given below which end in "o". It will be seen that they are all names.

In Esperanto every name ends in "o".

(In Grammar names are called NOUNS).

Notice further the words which end in "-as." They all express doing or being (action or state), which is going on at the present time, or which is a custom at the present time.

The words "a," "an," are not expressed; "the" is translated by "la".

When the name (noun) is required to denote more than one of the persons or things for which it stands, "j" is added to it, as "rozoj", roses; "kolomboj", pigeons; and then every "describing" word (adjective) which belongs to it must also have "j", as "rugxaj rozoj", red roses; "la kolomboj estas belaj", the pigeons are beautiful.

(When the noun stands for "more than one," it is said to be PLURAL. "j" is the sign of the plural).

ci : thou.	vi : you.
li : he.	ili : they.
sxi : she.	si (see Lesson 7).
gxi : it	oni : one, they, people.

(The above words are called PRONOUNS because they are used instead of repeating the noun).

By adding "a" the pronouns are made to denote a quality, in this case possession, as "mia libro", my book; "via pomo", your apple; "ilia infano", their child.

mia : my, mine.	nia : our, ours.
cia : thy, thine.	via : your, yours,
lia : his.	ilia : their, theirs.
sxia : her, hers.	sia (see Lesson 7), gxia : its.

When the name to which these "pronoun-adjectives" belong is plural they must of course take "j", as "mij libroj", my books; "viaj pomoj", your apples; "iliaj infanoj", their children.

In speaking of relations and parts of the body "la" is often used instead of "mia", "lia", etc., as "La filo staras apud la patro", The son stands by the (his) father.

For "mine," "ours," etc., "mia", "nia", etc., may be used either with or without "la", as "La libro estas mia", or "La libro estas la mia", The book is mine.

"Oni" is used for "one, they, people", when these words are indefinite in meaning, as in the sentences:--Here one can speak fearlessly, "Tie cxi oni povas multime paroli", They say that he is rich, "Oni diras, ke li estas ricxa", People often eat too quickly, "Oni ofte mangxas tro rapide."

LESSON 5.

The use of final "n".

In order to understand the meaning of a sentence it is necessary to be able to recognise clearly and unmistakably what it is that is spoken about, that is, what the "subject of the sentence" is. In English this is often to be recognised only by its position in the sentence. For instance, the three words--visited, John, George, can be arranged to mean two entirely, different things, either "John visited George," or "George visited John." [Footnote: In teaching Esperanto to children it is well to make sure before going further that they thoroughly understand, what the subject is. The subject is that which we think or speak about. The word which stands for it is the subject of the sentence. The children may be required to underline the subject of each sentence in a suitable piece of prose or verse.] In Esperanto the sense does not depend on the arrangement-- "Johano vizitis Georgon" and "Georgon vizitis Johano" mean exactly the same thing, that John visited George, the "n" at the end of "Georgon" showing that "Georgon" is not the subject. There is no want of clearness about the following (Esperanto) sentences, absurd as they are in English:--

La patron mordis la hundo.
The father bit the dog.

La infanon gratis la kato.
The child scratched the cat.

La birdojn pafis Johano.
The birds shot John.

La musojn kaptis la knabo.
The mice caught the boy.

La kokidon mangxis la onklo.
The chicken ate the uncle.

La bildon pentris la pentristo.
The picture painted the painter.

La fisxojn vendis la fisxisto.
The fish sold the fisherman.

In these sentences the subjects are at once seen to be "hundo, kato, Johano, knabo, onklo, pentristo, fisxisto", for the final "n" in "patron, infanon, birdojn, musojn, kokidon, bildon, fisxojn", distinguishes these words from the subject.

This use of "n" renders clear sentences that are not clear in English. "John loves Mary more than George" may mean "more than John loves George" or "more than George loves Mary." In Esperanto it is quite clear. "Johano amas Marion, pli ol Georgo" means "more than George loves Mary," because "Georgo" is the subject of the second (elliptical) sentence, but "Johano amas Marion, pli ol Georgon" means "more than John loves George," because the final "n" in Georgon shows this to be not the subject.

There are cases, however, in which it is not necessary to add "n", the noun or pronoun being distinguished from the subject in another way. Examples are found in the first exercise:--"Sur la tero" kuxas sxtono, "On the ground" lies a stone. "Antaux la pordo" staras arbo, "Before the door" stands a tree. Notwithstanding their position, "ground" and "door" are seen to be not the subject, because before them are the words "on," "before," which connect them with the rest of the sentence--it is "on the ground," "before the door." So with other sentences.

The words "on", "before", and others given [in Lesson 26] are called PREPOSITIONS ("pre" = before). The noun or pronoun which follows them can never be the subject of the sentence.

Remember, then, that

"N" is added to every noun and pronoun, "other than the subject", unless it has a preposition before it. [Footnote: (i.). The explanation usually given for the use of final "n" is, that "n" is added to nouns and pronouns (a) in the Accusative Case (the direct object), (b) when the preposition is omitted. The explanation given above seems to me, however, to be much simpler. (ii.). Another use of final "n" is given later [Lesson 12, Lesson 26]]

When the noun takes "n", any adjective which belongs to it must also take "n", as, "Li donas al mi belan rugxan floron", He gives me a beautiful red flower. "Li donas al mi belajn rugxajn florojn", He gives me beautiful red flowers.

stelo : star.	hodiaux : to:day.
vintro : winter.	malpli : less.
forno : stove.	kiam : when.
edzino : wife.	kia : what (kind).

Mi vidas leonon (leonojn). Mi legas libron (librojn). Mi amas la patron. Mi konas Johanon. La patro ne legas libron, sed li skribas leteron. Mi ne amas obstinajn homojn. Mi deziras al vi bonan tagon, sinjoro. Bonan matenon! Gxojan feston (mi deziras al vi). Kia gxoja festo (estas hodiaux)! En la tago ni vidas la helan sunon, kaj en la nokto ni vidas la palan lunon kaj la belajn stelojn. Ni havas pli fresxan panon, ol vi. Ne, vi eraras, sinjoro, via pano estas malpli fresxa, ol mia. Ni vokas la knabon, kaj li venos. En la vintro oni hejtas la fornojn. Kiam oni estas ricxa, oni havas multajn amikojn. Li amas min, sed mi lin ne amas. Sinjoro P. kaj lia edzino tre amas miajn infanojn; mi ankaux tre amas iliajn (infanojn). Mi ne konas la sinjoron, kiu legas.

LESSON 6.

We have seen already (Lesson 1) that the words which end in "-as" express the idea of "doing" (action) or of "being" (state), and that they assert that this action or state is going on, or is a custom, at the present time, as "Mi vidas", I see; "Sxi estas", She is; "Ili suferas", They suffer, they are suffering.

To say that the action or state took place at some "past" time, "-is" is used, as "Mi vidis", I saw; "Sxi estis", She was; "Ili suferis", They suffered, they were suffering.

To say that the action or state will take place at some time to come, in the future, "-os" is used, as, "Mi vidos", I shall see; "Sxi estos", She will be; "Ili suferos", They will suffer, they will be suffering.

(Words which assert something, or which express the idea of doing or of being, are called VERBS).

(The root only of the verbs will now be given in the Vocabulary without the termination).

Kial vi ne respondas al mi? Cxu vi estas surda aux muta? Kion vi faras?

La knabo forpelis la birdojn. De la patro mi ricevis libron, kaj de la frato mi ricevis plumon. La patro donis al mi dolcxan pomon. Jen estas la pomo, kiun mi trovis. Hieraux mi renkontis vian filon, kaj li gxentile salutis min. Antaux tri tagoj mi vizitis vian kuzon, kaj mia vizito faris al li plezuron. Kiam mi venis al li, li dormis, sed mi lin vekis.

Mi rakontos al vi historion. Cxu vi diros al mi la veron? Hodiaux estas sabato, kaj morgaux estos dimancxo. Hieraux estis vendredo, kaj postmorgaux estos lundo. Cxu vi jam trovis vian horlogxon? Mi gxin ancoraux ne sercxis; kiam mi finos mian laboron, mi sercxos mian horlogxon, sed mi timas, ke mi gxin jam ne trovos. Se vi nin venkos, la popolo diros, ke nur virinojn vi venkis. Kiam vi atingos la agxon de dek-kvin jaroj, vi ricevos la permeson.

LESSON 7.

Confusion is apt to occur in English in the use of the words "him, her, it, them; his, hers, its, their", e.g., "John loves his brother and his children." Whose children, John's or his brother's? "The boys brought to their fathers their hats." Whose hats, the boys' or their fathers'? "She gave her sister her book." Whose book? Her own or her sister's?

This confusion is avoided in Esperanto by the use of, the pronoun "si" ("sin"), meaning "himself, herself, itself, themselves", and "sia," meaning "his own, her own, its own, their own."

"Si" ("sin, sia") refers to the "subject" of the sentence in which it occurs; therefore in the sentence "John loves his brother and his son," it must be "Johano amas sian fraton kaj sian filon" if it is his own (John's) son, because John is the subject, but we must say "lian filon" if the brother's son is meant. "La knaboj alportis al siaj patroj siajn cxapelojn" means "The boys brought to their fathers their own (the boys') hats," because "boys" is the subject, but if we mean "the fathers' hats" it must be "iliajn cxapelojn."

"She gave to her sister her book" must be "Sxi donis al sia fratino sian libron" if it were her own book, but "Sxi donis al sia fratino sxian libron" if it were her sister's book. "Li diris al si"... means "He said to himself," but "Li diris al li" means that he said it to another person.

"Si", "sia", can only "refer to" the subject, it cannot be the subject itself or any part of it; therefore we must say "Sinjoro P. kaj lia edzino tre amas miajn infanojn", because the subject is "Sinjoro P. kaj lia edzino."

"Mem," self, is only used for emphasis, "e.g.", "Mi mem," my (own) self.

VOCABULARY.

gasto : guest.	montr- : show.
vespero : evening.	fleg- : tend, take care of mangxo : meal.	re-ven- : come back.
pupo : doll.	pri : concerning, about.
aventuro : adventure.	gxis : until, as far as.
palaco : palace.	tute : quite, wholly.
zorg- : take care of.	tute ne : not at all.
gard- : guard.	kun : with.
am- : love.	el : out of.
akompan- : accompany.	el-ir- : go out of.
lav- : wash.

Mi amas min mem, vi amas vin mem, li amas sin mem kaj cxiu homo amas sin mem. Mi zorgas pri sxi tiel, kiel mi zorgas pri mi mem, sed sxi mem tute ne zorgas pri si, kaj tute sin ne gardas. Miaj fratoj havis hodiaux gastojn; post la vespermangxo niaj fratoj eliris kun la gastoj el sia domo kaj akompanis ilin gxis ilia domo. Mi lavis min en mia cxambro, kaj sxi lavis sin en sia cxambro. La infano sercxis sian pupon; mi montris al la infano, kie kusxas gxia pupo. [Footnote: Notice the use of the present "kusxas," "lies", after the past "montris," "showed", because at the time the action of "showing" took place the action of "lying" was then actually going on.]

Sxi rakontis al li sian aventuron. Sxi revenis al la palaco de sia patro. Siajn florojn sxi ne flegis. Mia frato diris al Stefano, ke li amas lin pli, ol sin mem.

LESSON 8.

The Cardinal Numbers are:--

unu : 1	kvar : 4	sep : 7	dek : 10
du : 2	kvin : 5	ok : 8	cent : 100
tri : 3	ses : 6	naux : 9	mil : 1,000

The numbers above 10 are written and read exactly as they are set down in figures:--11, dek unu; 12, dek du; 13, dek tri; 19, dek naux. The "tens" are written as one word, 20, dudek; 30, tridek; 90, nauxdek; 23, dudek tri; 47, kvardek sep; 85, okdek kvin; 136, cent tridek ses; 208, ducent (as one word) ok; 359, tricent kvindek naux; 1,001, mil unu; 2,877, dumil okcent sepdek sep; 1907, mil nauxcent sep.

Notice that there is a separate word for each figure except 0, nulo.

horo : hour.	facile : easily.
minuto : minute.	sankta : holy.
sekundo : second.	unuj : some.
monato : month.	alia : other.
semajno : week.	cxio : everything, all.
dato : date (of month, etc.).	multe : much, many.
pov- : can, be able.	per : by means of, through, with.
promen- : take a walk.	nur : only.
konsist- : consist.	malbona : bad.
elekt- : choose, elect.	Kristnaska Tago : Christmas Day.

Januaro : January.	Julio : July.

Marto : March.	Septembro : September.
Aprilo : April.	Oktobro : October.
Majo : May.	Novembro : November.
Junio : June.	Decembro : December.

Du homoj povas pli multe fari, ol unu. Mi havas nur unu busxon, sed mi havas du orelojn. Li promenas kun tri hundoj. Li faris cxion per la dek fingroj de siaj manoj. El sxiaj multaj infanoj unuj estas bonaj kaj aliaj malbonaj. Kvin kaj sep faras dek du. Dek kaj dek faras dudek. Kvar kaj dek ok faras dudek du. Tridek kaj kvardek kvin faras sepdek kvin. Mil okcent nauxdek tri. Li havas dek unu infanojn. Sesdek minutoj faras unu horon, kaj unu minuto konsistas el sesdek sekundoj.

The Ordinal Numbers, first, second, etc., are formed by adding "a" to the Cardinal Numbers, as "unua", first; "dua", second; "tria", third; "kvara", fourth; "deka", tenth; "centa", hundredth; "mila", thousandth. The compound numbers are joined together by hyphens, and "a" is added to the last, as "dek-unua", eleventh; "la tridek-nauxa pagxo", the thirty-ninth page; la "cent-kvardek-kvina psalmo", the 145th psalm. Being adjectives, the Ordinal Numbers take the plural "j" and accusative "n" when necessary.

The Ordinals are used to tell the hour, as "Estas la trio, horo", It is 3 o'clock. The Cardinal Numbers are used for the minutes, as "A quarter past three" is "La tria horo kaj dek-kvin"; "Ten minutes to five," "La kvara horo kaj kvindek".

Januaro estas la unua monato de la jaro, Aprilo estas la kvara, Novembro estas la dek-unua, kaj Decembro estas la dek-dua. La dudeka (tago) de Februaro estas la kvindek-unua tago de la jaro. La sepan tagon de la semajno Dio elektis, ke gxi estu pli sankta, ol la ses unuaj tagoj. Kion Dio kreis en la sesa tago? Kiun daton ni havas hodiaux? Hodiaux estas la dudek-sepa (tago) de Marto. Kristnaska Tago estas la dudek-kvina (tago) de Decembro, Novjara Tago estas la unua de Januaro. Oni ne forgesas facile sian unuan amon.

LESSON 9.

The names of certain quantities are formed from the cardinal numbers by adding "o", as "dekduo", a dozen; "dudeko", a score; "cento", a hundred; "milo", a thousand. These names, as well as names of quantities generally, require to be followed by "da", of, as "dekduo da birdoj", a dozen (of) birds, but "dekdu birdoj", twelve birds; "dudeko da pomoj", a score of apples; "cento da sxafoj", or "cent sxafoj", a hundred sheep; "milo da homoj", a thousand people; "miloj da homoj", thousands of people.

When these expressions form the object of the verb, it is the name of the number which takes "-n", not the noun which follows "da", as "Li acxetis dudekon da sxafoj", He bought a score of sheep.

For "firstly, secondly", etc., "-e" is added to the number, as "unue", firstly; "kvine", fifthly; "deke", tenthly. (See Lesson 12).

VOCABULARY.

urbo : town.	acxet- : buy.
logxanto : inhabitant.	dank- : thank.
kulero : spoon.	pet- : beg, request.
forko : fork.	bezon- : want, need.
mono : money.	kost- : cost.
prunto : loan.	poste : afterwards.
metro : metre.	tiu cxi : this.
sxtofo : stuff.	por : for.

franko : franc (about 10d.). re- : prefix, meaning again atakanto : assailant. or back.
pago : payment. tial : therefore.
miliono : a million. aux : or.
prunt- : lend. da : of (after a quantity).

Mi havas cent pomojn. Mi havas centon da pomoj. Tiu cxi urbo havas milionon da logxantoj. Mi acxetis dekduon da kuleroj, kaj du dekduojn da forkoj. Mil jaroj (aux, milo da jaroj) faras miljaron.

Unue mi redonas al vi la monon, kiun vi pruntis al mi; due mi dankas vin por la prunto; trie mi petas vin ankaux poste prunti al mi, kiam mi bezonos monon.

9A.

To express a certain part or fraction, "-on-" is added to the number specifying what part, as 1/2, unu "duono"; 1/3, unu "triono"; 1/4, unu "kvarono"; 1/10, unu "dekono"; 1/1000 unu "milono"; 1/1000000, unu "milionono". These words, being nouns, take "j" and "n" when required--3/10, "tri dekonoj"; 27/200, "dudek-sep ducentonoj"; 19/1000, "deknaux milonoj. Mi mangxis tri kvaronojn de la kuko", I ate three-quarters of the cake (see Lesson 35).

To express so many times a number "-obl-" is added to the number, as "duobla", double; "dekoble", ten times; "trioble kvar estas (or "faras") dekdu", three times four are twelve; "sepoble ok faras kvindek ses", seven times eight make fifty-six.

To express "by twos, by tens", etc., "-op-" is added to the number, as "duope", by twos, or two together; "dekope", by tens; "kvindekope", by fifties, fifty together, or fifty at a time.

Tri estas duono de ses, ok estas kvar kvinonoj de dek. Kvar metroj da tiu cxi sxtofo kostas naux frankojn, tial du metroj kostas kvar kaj duonon frankojn (aux da frankoj). Unu tago estas tricent-sesdek-kvinono, aux tricent-sesdek-sesono de jaro.

Kvinoble sep estas tridek kvin. Por cxiu tago mi ricevas kvin frankojn, sed por la hodiauxa tago mi ricevis duoblan pagon, t.e. (= tio estas) dek frankojn.

Tiuj cxi du amikoj promenas cxiam duope. Kvinope ili sin jxetis sur min, sed mi venkis cxuijn kvin atakantojn.

LESSON 10.

VERBS (continued), -i, -u.

In the examples already given the verbs ending in "-as", "-is", "-os" express "action" or "being" ("state") going on in present, past, or future time, as "Mi skribas", I am writing; "Li legis", He read; "Ni iros", We shall go.

If we wish merely to express the idea of action or state indefinitely, without reference to any time or any subject, the verb must end in "-i," as "Vivi", To live; "Mi deziras lerni", I wish to learn; "Ni devas labori", We must work.

(This is called the INDEFINITE or INFINITIVE Mood (manner of expression), because not limited by reference to time or subject).

To give an "order" or "command", or to express "will, desire, purpose", etc., the verb must end in "u", as "Donu al mi panon", Give (to) me bread; "Iru for", Go away; "Estu felicxa", May you be happy! "Vivu la regxo!" (Long) live the king!

In such cases as Tell "him to come", I want "you to sing", Allow "her to speak", we have to use a second sentence with the verb ending in "u", and beginning with "ke", that, as "Diru al li, ke li venu", Tell (say to) him, that he come; "Mi deziras, ke vi kantu", I wish, that you sing; "Permesu al sxi, ke sxi parolu", Allow her, that she speak. Sentences like the last are often contracted, only the last subject and verb being used, as "Sxi parolu", Let her speak; "Gxi kusxu", Let it lie; "Ni iru", Let us go; "Ili dormu", Let them sleep. "Cxu vi volas ke mi tion faru?" Do you wish me to do that? "Cxu mi tion faru?" Shall I do that?

kuragx- : have courage

Donu al la birdoj akvon, cxar ili volas trinki. Aleksandro ne volas lerni, kaj tial mi batas Aleksandron. Kiu kuragxas rajdi sur leono? Mi volis lin bati, sed li forkuris de mi.

Al leono ne donu la manon. Rakontu al mia juna amiko belan historion. Diru al la patro, ke mi estas diligenta. Diru al mi vian nomon. Ne skribu al mi tiajn longajn leterojn. Montru al mi vian novan veston.

Infano, ne tusxu la spegulon. Karaj infanoj, estu cxiam honestaj. Ne auxskultu lin.

Li diras, ke mi estas atenta. Li petas, ke mi estu atenta. Ordonu al li, ke li ne babilu. Petu lin, ke li sendu al mi kandelon. La dometo estas inda, ke vi gxin acxetu. Sxi forte deziris, ke li restu viva.

Li venu, kaj mi pardonos al li. Ni estu gajaj, ni uzu bone la vivon, cxar la vivo ne estas longa. Li ne venu sole, sed alvenu kun sia plej bona amiko. Mi jam havas mian cxapelon; nun sercxu vi vian.

LESSON 11.

VERBS (continued), -us.

Sometimes we want to express a "supposition", to say that something "would" take place, supposing that something else, which is not likely to occur, were to do so, or that something "would have" taken place if something else which did not occur had done so. In this case the verb must end with "-us", as, If I were well (which I am not) I should be happy (which also I am not), "Se mi estus sana, mi estus felicxa". If he knew (supposition) that I am here (a fact) he would immediately come to me (supposition), "Se li sciis, ke mi estas tie cxi, li tuj venus al mi". Compare the two following sentences:-- (i.). "Kvankam vi estas ricxa, mi dubas, cxu vi estas felicxa", Though you are (in fact) rich, I doubt whether you are (in fact) happy, (ii.). "Kvankam vi estus ricxa, mi dubas, cxu, vi estus felicxa", Though (supposing that) you were rich,
I doubt whether you would be happy.

VOCABULARY.

lernanto : pupil.	pen- : endeavour.
leciono : lesson.	imit- : imitate,
instruanto : teacher,	kvazaux : as if.

pun- : punish.	efektive : really.
estim- : esteem.	supren : upwards.
lev- : lift, raise.	kvankam : though.
ten- : hold, keep.	se : if.

Se la lernanto sciis bone sian lecionon, la instruanto lin ne punus. Se vi sciis, kiu li estas, vi lin pli estimus. Ili levis unu manon supren, kvazaux ili ion tenus. Se mi efektive estus bela, aliaj penus min imiti.
Ho! se mi jam havus la agxon de dekkvin jaroj!

LESSON 12.

When we tell of someone doing a certain action we often want to allude to some circumstance concerning that action, such as the time, or place, or manner in which it was done, that is, when, or where, or how it was done.

In the sentences--Yesterday I met your son, "Hieraux mi renkontis vian filon"; He will go in the evening, "Li iros vespere"; They sat there, "Ili sidis tie"; She will remain at home, "Sxi restos hejme"; Good children learn diligently, "Bonaj infanoj lernas diligente"; I will do it with pleasure, "Mi faros gxin plezure", the words "hieraux, vespere", show the time, "tie, hejme", show the place, and "diligente, plezure", show the manner of the action.

(Because these words relate to the verb they are called ADVERBS).

Adverbs may be formed from any word whose sense admits of it, and especially from adjectives, by means of the termination "e", as "bona", good, "bone", well; "antaux" before, "antauxe", previously or formerly; "mateno", morning, "matene", in the morning; "sekvi", to follow, "sekve", consequently.

When we want the adverb to show "direction towards" any place, time, etc., either actually or figuratively, "n" is added, as "Li alkuris hejmen", He ran home. "Ili levis unu manon supren", They raised one hand upwards. "Antauxen"! Forward! ("n" is also added to nouns to show direction towards. "Li eniris en la domon", He entered into the house).

Some adverbs are used with adjectives and other adverbs to show the "degree" of the quality, quantity, etc., as The paper is "very" white, La papero estas "tre" blanka. "Too" much speaking tires him, La "tro" multa parolado lacigas lin. I am "as" strong "as" you, Mi estas "tiel" forta, "kiel" vi (estas forta). He came "very" early, Li venis "tre" frue.

The following words are in themselves adverbs, and need no special ending:--

Resti kun leono estas dangxere. La trancxilo trancxas bone, cxar gxi estas akra. Iru pli rapide. Li fermis kolere la pardonon. Lia parolo fluas dolcxo kaj agrable. Ni faris la kontrakton ne skribe, sed parole. Honesta homo agas honeste. La pastro, kiu mortis antaux nelonge (antaux ne longa tempo), logxis longe en nia urbo. Cxu vi gxin ne ricevis returne? Li estas morte malsana. La fera bastono, kiu kusxis en la forno, estas brule varmega. Parizo estas tre gaja. Matene frue sxi alveturis [Footnote: See Lesson 27.] al la stacidomo.

Pardonu al mi, ke mi restis tiel longe. Lia kolero longe dauxris. Li estas hodiaux en kolera humoro. La regxo baldaux denove sendis alian bonkoran oficiston. Hodiaux vespere ni havos balon. Kie vi estas? For de tie-cxi!

Kien li forveturis? Sxi kuris hejmen. Ni iris antauxen, kiel furioj. Cxio estis bona, kaj ni veturis pluen. La sinjorino ekrigardis returnen. La sxipanoj postulis, ke oni iru returnen. Mi gxin pendigis tien cxi, cxar gxi savis mian vivon. Mi neniam sendis tien cxi.

LESSON 13.

Mal-, -in-.

In Esperanto certain syllables which have a definite meaning are placed at the beginning (prefixes) or end (suffixes) of words to alter in some way the meaning of those words.

The prefix "mal-" gives an exactly opposite meaning to the word to which it is prefixed, as "dekstra", right (hand); "maldekstra", left (hand); "nova", new; "malnova", old; "helpi", to help, "malhelpi", to hinder; "fermi", to shut, "malfermi", to open.

The suffix "-in-" denotes the female sex. From "viro", [Footnote: The word "homo" previously given (Lesson 2) signifies a human being, a person, without reference to sex; "viro" means a man as distinguished from a woman.] a man, we get "virino", a woman; "filo", son, "filino", daughter; "cxevalo", a horse, "cxevalino", a mare; "koko", a cock, "kokino", a hen.

Mia frato ne estas granda, sed li ne estas malgranda, li estas de meza kresko. Haro estas tre maldika. La nokto estas tiel malluma, ke ni nenion povas vidi ecx antaux nia nazo. Tiu cxi malfresxa pano estas malmola, kiel sxtono. Malbonaj infanoj amas turmenti bestojn. Li sentis sin tiel malfelicxa, ke li malbenis la tagon, en kiu li estis naskita. Ni forte malestimas tiun cxi malnoblan homon. La fenestro longe estis nefermita; mi gxin fermis, sed mia frato tuj gxin denove malfermis. Rekta vojo estas pli mallonga, ol kurba. Ne estu maldanka.

La edzino de mia patro estas mia patrino, kaj la avino de miaj infanoj. Mia fratino estas tre bela knabino. Mia onklino estas tre bona virino. Mi vidis vian avinon kun sxiaj kvar nepinoj, kaj kun mia nevino. Mi havas bovon kaj bovinon. La juna vidvino farigxis denove fiancxino.

LESSON 14.

Re-, -ad-, ek-.

The prefixes "re-" and "ek-" and the suffix "-ad-" are attached to verbs.

"Re-" has nearly the same meaning as in English, "back" or "again", as "re-pagi", to pay back; "re-porti", to carry back; "re-jxeti", to throw back; "re-salti", to rebound; "re-kanti" to sing again; "re-legi", to read over again.

"-ad-" denotes the continuance or continued repetition of an action; it means "goes on doing", or "keeps on doing", or "is in the habit of", or in the past "used to", as "spiri", to breathe, "spirado", respiration; "movi", to move, "movado", continued movement; "fumi", to smoke, "fumado", the habit of smoking; "auxdi", to hear, "auxdado", the sense of hearing.

"Ek-" has the opposite meaning to "-ad-"; it signifies the beginning of an action, or a short or sudden action, as "kanti", to sing, "ekkanti", to begin to sing; "ridi", to laugh, "ekridi", to burst out laughing; "krii", to cry or call, "ekkrii", to cry out; "iri", to go, "ekiri", to set out; "dormi", to sleep, "ekdormi", to fall asleep.

Li donis al mi monon, sed mi gxin tuj redonis al li. Mi foriras, sed atendu min, cxar mi baldaux revenos. La suno rebrilas en la klara akvo de la rivero. Li reiris al sia lando. Sxi rejxetis sin sur la segxon.

En la dauxro de kelke da minutoj mi auxdis du pafojn. La pafado dauxris tre longe. Lia hierauxa parolo estis tre bela, sed la tro multa parolado lacigas lin. Li kantas tre belan kanton. La kantado estas agrabla okupo. Per mia mano mi energie lin frotadis. La pluvo faladis per riveroj. Cxiuminute sxi elrigardadis tra la fenestro, kaj malbenadis la malrapidan iradon de la vagonaro.

Mi saltas tre lerte. Mi eksaltis de surprizo. Mi saltadis la tutan tagon [Footnote: See Lesson 26 (iii.)] de loko al loko. Kiam vi ekparolis, mi atendis auxdi ion novan. La diamanto havas belan brilon. Sxi lasis la diamanton ekbrili. Du ekbriloj do fulmo trakuris tra la malluma cxielo.

LESSON 15.

In all the examples already given the Subject of the Sentence is the "doer" of the action, but often it is "the one to whom the action is done" who occupies our thoughts, and of whom we wish to speak. This one then becomes the subject, and the form of the Verb is changed. Instead of saying "The police are searching for the thief," "Someone has broken the window," "Someone is going to finish the work to-morrow," we say "The thief is being sought for by the police," "The window has been broken," "The work is going to be finished to-morrow."

(Note the convenience of this form when we do not know or do not wish to mention the doer).

In Esperanto the terminations "-ata", "being", denoting "incompleteness" or "present" time, "-ita", "having been", denoting "completeness" or "past" time, and "-ota", "about to be" (going to be), denoting "action not yet begun", or "future" time, are added to the root of the verb, as "ami", to love, "amata", being loved, "amita", having been loved, "amota", going to be loved. "La sxtelisto estas sercxata de la policanoj" [Footnote: "De" is used after these participles to denote the "doer" of the action.], The thief is being searched for by the police. "La fenestro estas rompita", The window has been broken. "La laboro estas finota morgaux", The work is going to be finished to-morrow.

It will be seen that these words ending in "-ata", "-ita", "-ota" describe the subject or show the "condition" or "state" in which the subject is, therefore they are adjectival; the thief is a "searched-for" thief, the window was a "broken" window, the work is a "going-to-be-finished" work (compare The work will be "ready" to-morrow). They are called PARTICIPLES, and being adjectival, take "j" when the noun to which they belong is plural.

Mi estas tenata I am (being) held.
Li estis tenata He was (being) held.
Ni estos tenataj We shall be (being) held.
Vi estus tenataj You would be (being) held.
Ke ili estu tenataj That they may be (being) held.
Estu tenata Be (being) held.
Esti tenata To be (being) held.

been seen, or, I have been seen.
Li estis vidita He was (in the state of) having been seen, or, he had been seen.
Ni estos viditaj We shall be (in the state of) having been seen, or, we shall have been seen.
Vi estus viditaj You would be (in the state of)

would have been seen.
(Ke) ili estu viditaj (That) they may be (in the state of) having been seen,

seen.
Esti vidita To be (in the state of) having been seen, or, to have been seen.

Mi estas lauxdota I am about (going) to be praised.
Sxi estis lauxdota She was about (going) to be praised.
Ni estos lauxdotaj We shall be about (going) to be praised.
Vi estus lauxdotaj You would be about (going) to be praised.
(Ke) ili estu lauxdotaj (That) they should be about (going) to be praised.
Esti lauxdota To be about (going) to be praised.

komercaĵo : commodity.	sciig- : inform.
surtuto : overcoat.	kasx- : hide.
sxuldo : debt.	pens- : think.
ringo : ring.	kapt- : capture.
projekto : project.	trankvila : quiet.
ingxeniero : civil engineer.	tuta : all, whole.
fervojo : railroad.	grava : important.
pregxo : prayer.	ora : golden.
pasero : sparrow.	volonte : willingly.
aglo : eagle.	sekve : consequently.
invit- : invite.	laux : according to.
konstru- : construct.

Mi estas amata. Mi estis amata. Mi estos amata. Mi estus amata. Estu amata. Esti amata. Vi estas lavita. Vi estis lavita. Vi estos lavita. Vi estus lavita. Estu lavita. Esti lavita. Li estas invitota. Li estis invitota. Li estos invitota. Li estus invitota. Estu invitota. Esti invitota. Tiu cxi komercaĵo estas cxiam volonte acxetata de mi. La surtuto estas acxetita de mi; sekve gxi apartenas al mi. Kiam via domo estis konstruata, mia domo estis jam longe konstruita. Mi sciigas, ke de nun la sxuldoj de mia filo ne estos pagataj de mi. Estu trankvila, mia tuta sxuldo estos pagita al vi baldaux. Mia ora ringo ne estus tiel longe sercxata, se gxi ne estus tiel lerte kasxita de vi. Laux la projekto de la ingxenieroj tiu cxi fervojo estas konstruota en la dauxro de du jaroj; sed mi pensas, ke gxi estos konstruata pli ol tri jarojn. Kiam la pregxo estis finita, li sin levis.

Auxgusto estas mia plej amata filo. Mono havata estas pli grava ol havita. Pasero kaptita estas pli bona, ol aglo kaptota.

LESSON 16.

Another set of participles is used to describe or show the condition or state of the "doer" of the action, namely "-anta", denoting "incompleteness" or present time, "-inta", denoting "completeness" or past time, and "-onta", denoting "action not yet begun", or future time, as "Sur la arbo staras kantanta birdo (aux birdo kantanta)", On the tree is a singing bird (or a bird singing); "En la venonta somero mi vizitos vin", In the coming summer I shall visit you; "La pasinta nokto estis tre pluva", The past night was very wet (rainy).

Mi estas mangxanta I am (in the act of) eating.
 Li estis mangxanta He was eating.
 Ni estos mangxantaj We shall be eating.
 Vi estus mangxantaj You would be eating.
 (Ke) ili estu mangxantaj (That) they may be eating.
 Esti mangxanta To be eating.
 Estu mangxanta Be (in the act of) eating.

Mi estas teninta I am (in the state of) having held, or, I have held.

 Li estis teninta He was (in the state of) having held, or, he had held.
 Ni estos tenintaj We shall be (in the state of) having held, or, we shall have held.
 Vi estus tenintaj You would be (in the state of) having held, or, you would have held.
 (Ke) ili estu tenintaj (That) they may be (in the state of) having held, or,
 (that) they may have held.
 Esti teninta To be (in the state of) having held, or, to have held.

Mi estas dironta I am about (going) to say.
 Li estis dironta He was about (going) to say.
 Ni estos dirontaj We shall be about (going) to say.
 Vi estus dirontaj You would be about (going)
 to say.
 (Ke) ili estu dirontaj (That) they may be about (going) to say.
 Esti dironta To be about (going) to say.

The participles are made into nouns by ending them with "o" instead of "a", as "Kiam Nikodemo batas Jozefon, tiam Nikodemo estas la batanto, kaj Jozefo estas la batato", When Nicodemus beats Joseph, then Nicodemus is the beater, and Joseph is the one being beaten.

La batanto The one who is beating.
 La batinto The one who was beating.
 La batonto The one who is about (going) to beat.
 La batato The one who is being beaten.
 La batito The one who has been beaten.
 La batoto The one who is about to be beaten.

Note that the participles which have "n" in the termination refer to the "doer"; they are called "active" participles. Those without "n" refer to the one to whom the action is done; they are "passive" participles.

VOCABULARY.

tempo : time.	ripet- : repeat.
mondo : world.	arest- : arrest.
lingvo : language.	jugx- : judge.
nombro : number.	konduk- : lead, conduct.
legendo : legend.	vojagx- : travel, journey.
loko : place.	sxtel- : steal.

salono : drawing-room.	ripoz- : rest, repose.
eraro : mistake.	diradis : used to say (tell).
soldato : soldier.	estonta : future (about to be).
strato : street.	vera : true.
pek- : sin.	intence : intentionally.
fal- : fall.	facile : easily.
mensog- : tell a lie.	antaux- : formerly, previously.
pas- : pass (as time passes).	dum : while, whilst, during.
atend- : wait, expect.	neniam : never.
sav- : save, rescue.	neniu : nobody.
danc- : dance.	sen : without.
kred- : believe.	senmove : motionless.

Fluanta akvo estas pli pura, ol akvo staranta senmove. La falinta homo ne povas sin levi. La tempo pasinta jam neniam revenos; la tempon venontan neniu ankoraux konas. Venu, ni atendas vin, Savonto de la mondo. En la lingvo Esperanto ni vidas la estontan lingvon de la tuta mondo. La nombro de la dancantoj estis granda. Gxi estas la legendo, kiun la veraj kredantoj cxiam ripetas. Li kondukis la vojagxanton al la loko, kie la sxtelintoj ripozis. Al homo, pekinta senintence, Dio facile pardonas. La soldatoj kondukis la arestitojn tra la stratoj. Homo, kiun oni devas jugxi, estas jugxoto.

16A.

Nun li diras al mi la veron. Hieraux li diris al mi la veron. Li cxiam diradis al mi la veron. Kiam vi vidis nin en la salono, li jam antauxe diris al mi la veron (aux, li estis dirinta al mi la veron). Li diros al mi la veron. Kiam vi venos al mi, li jam antauxe diros al mi la veron (aux, li estos dirinta al mi la veron; aux, antaux ol vi venos al mi, li diros al mi la veron). Se mi petus lin, li dirus al mi la veron. Mi ne farus la eraron, se li antauxe dirus al mi la veron (aux, se li estus dirinta al mi la veron). Kiam mi venos, diru al mi la veron. Kiam mia patro venos, diru al mi antauxe la veron (aux, estu dirinta al mi la veron). Mi volas diri al vi la veron. Mi volas, ke tio, kion mi diris, estu vera (aux, mi volas esti dirinta la veron).

LESSON 17.

Participles can be used as adverbs when they refer to the subject, and tell some circumstance about the action, as "Walking along the street, John saw your friend." "Walking along the street" tells the circumstance under which the subject, John, saw your friend; therefore "walking" is adverbial--"Promenante sur la strato, Johano vidis vian amikon." If it were the friend who was walking, it must be "Johano vidis vian amikon, promenantan sur la strato."

(Examine in this way the sentences in the following exercise).

VOCABULARY.

braceleto : bracelet.	medit- : meditate.
sxtelisto : thief.	port- : carry.
vorto : word.	demand- : ask.
duko : duke.	sxpar- : save.
juvelo : jewel.	edzigx- : marry.
juvelujo : jewel-case.	hont- : be ashamed.
dolaro : dollar.	ir- : go.
instruo : instruction.	profunda : deep.
planko : floor.	kelka : some.
imperiestro : emperor.	ia : some (kind), any (kind).
okazo : opportunity, occurrence,	kredeble : probably.
chance.	trans : across.
serv- : serve.	tio cxi : this (thing).

Promenante sur la strato, mi falis. Trovinte pomon, mi gxin mangxis. Li venis al mi tute ne atendite. Li iris tre meditante kaj tre malrapide. Ni hontis, ricevinte instruon de la knabo. La imperiestra servanto eliris, portante kun si la braceleton. Profunde salutante, li rakontis, ke oni kaptis la sxteliston. Ne dirante vorton, la dukino malfermis sian juvelujon. Laborinte unu jaron, kaj sxparinte kelkajn dolarojn, mi edzigxis kun mia Mario. Transirinte la riveron, li trovis la sxteliston. Rigardinte okaze la plankon, sxi vidis ian libron, forgesitan kredeble de elirinta veturanto.

LESSON 18.

Suffix -ist-.

The suffix "-ist-" denotes one who occupies himself with or devotes himself to any special thing, as a business or a hobby, as "jugxi", to judge, "jugxisto", a judge; "servi", to serve, "servisto", a servant; "kuraci", to treat (as a doctor), "kuracisto", a doctor; "lavi", to wash, "lavisto", a laundryman.

VOCABULARY.

boto : boot.	transskrib- : transcribe, copy.
sxuo : shoe.	kuir- : cook.
maro : sea.	veturig- : drive (carriage, etc.).
mehxaniko : mechanics.	tromp- : deceive.

scienco : science.	simple : simply.
dron- : be drowned, sink.	je (indefinite meaning).
verk- : work mentally, write,	[Lessons 26, 40.]
compose.

La botisto faras botojn kaj sxuojn. Sxtelistojn neniu lasas en sian domon. La kuragxa maristo dronis en la maro. Verkisto verkas librojn, kaj skribisto simple transskribas paperojn. Ni havas diversajn servantojn--kuiriston, cxambristino, infanistino, kaj veturigisto.

Kiu okupas sin je mehxaniko estas mehxankisto, kaj kiu okupas sin je hxemio estas hxemiisto. Diplomiistino oni povas ankaux nomi diplomato, [Footnote: See Lesson 45.] sed fizikistino oni ne povas nomi fiziko, [Footnote: See Lesson 45.] cxar fiziko estas la nomo de la scienco mem.
Unu tago [Footnote: See Lesson 26.] (en unu tago) venis du trompantoj, kiuj diris, ke ili estas teksistoj.

LESSON 19.

Suffixes -ig-, -igx-.

"-ig-" means "to make" or "cause" someone or something to be or to do that which the word denotes, while "-igx-" means "to become" so or such oneself. Thus from "rugxa", red, we get "rugxigi", to make (something or someone) red, "rugxigxi", to become red oneself, to blush; "klara", clear, "klarigi", to make clear, to explain, "klarigxi", to become clear; "sidi", to sit, to be sitting, "sidigi", to cause someone to sit, "sidigxi", to become seated, to sit down; "kun", with, "kunigi", to connect, "kunigxi", to become connected with; "devi", to have to (must),
"devigi", to compel; "fari", to do or make, "farigxi", to become; "for", away, "forigi", make (go) away.

cxapo : bonnet, cap.	blow- : blow.
arbeto : little tree.	ekbrul- : begin to burn.
vento : wind.	rid- : laugh.
branco : branch.	romp- : break.
vizagxo : face.	fluida : fluid.
kuvo : tub.	kota : dirty, muddy.
kolego : companion, colleague	natura : natural.
Hebreo : Hebrew.	seka : dry.
Kristano : Christian.	tamen : however, nevertheless, yet

Oni tiel malhelpis al mi, ke mi malbonigis mian tutan laboron. Forigu vian fraton, cxar li malhelpas al ni. Venigu la kuraciston, cxar mi estas malsana.

Li venigis al si el Berlino multajn librojn (multe da libroj).

Li paligxis de timo, kaj poste li rugxigxis de honto. En la printempo la glacio kaj la negxo fluidigxas. En la kota vetero mia vesto forte malpurigxis; tial mi prenis broson kaj purigis la veston. Mia onklo ne mortis per natura morto, sed li tamen ne mortigis sin mem, kaj ankaux estis mortigita de neniuj; unu tago, [Footnote: See Lesson 26, Note iii.] promenante apud la reloĵoj de fervojo, li falis sub la radojn de veturanta vagonaro, kaj mortigxis. Mi ne pendigis mian cxapon sur tiu cxi arbeto; sed la vento forblovis de mia kapo la cxapon, kaj gxi, flugante, pendigxis sur la brancxoj de la arbeto. Sidigu vin (aux, sidigxu), sinjoro!

Lia malgaja vizagxo ridigis lian amikon. La tutan nokton ili pasigis maldorme, kaj ekbruligis pli ol dek ses kandelojn. Mi senvestigis la infanon de liaj noktaj vestoj, kaj starigis lin en la kuvon; poste mi sekigis lin. Li amikigxis kun malbonaj kolegoj. Malricxa hebreo volis kristanigxi. La botelo falis kaj rompigxis. Sxi farigxis lia edzino. Iom post iom, sxi tute trankviligxis.

NOTES.

1.--In "pluvas", it rains; "tondras", it thunders; "estas bela tago", it is a fine day; "estas bele", it is fine; "estas vere, ke...", it is true that..., etc., "it" is left out, because it does not stand for any "thing." The adverbs "bele", "vere", are used because no "thing" is mentioned.

2.--"Ni havas fresxajn lakton kaj panon" means "Ni havas fresxan lakton kaj fresxan panon", We have new milk and new bread. "Ni havas fresxan lakton kaj panon" means We have bread and new milk.

3.--"La angla, franca kaj germana lingvoj estas malfacilaj", The English, French and German languages are difficult. "Angla", "franca", "germana" do not take "j" because each refers to only one language, while "malfacilaj" refers to all those mentioned.

LESSON 20.

The words "ia, tia; kial, tial; kiam, cxiam, neniam; kie, kiel, tiel; io, kio, tio, cxio, nenio; kiu, cxiu, neniu", have already been met with. They belong to a series whose use will best be seen from the following examples:--

"ia" denotes kind or quality. "Kia" floro estas la plej bela? "Ia" kaj "cxia" floro estas beta, "nenia" estas malbela. Mi admiras la rozon; "tia" floro la plej placxas al mi. "What (kind of)" flower is the most beautiful? "Any kind" and "every kind" of flower is beautiful, "no kind" is ugly. I admire the rose, "that kind of" flower pleases me the most.

"ial", motive, reason. "Kial" li iros en Parizon? Mi ne scias; "ial" li foriros, sed "cxial" estus pli bone resti en Londono. Li deziras foriri, "tial" li foriros. "Why" is he going (will he go) to Paris? I know not; "for some reason" he is going, but "for every reason" (on every account) it would be better to remain in London. He wishes to go,

"therefore" (for that reason) he will go.

"iam", time. "Kiam" vi venos min viziti? "Iam" mi venos, "kiam" mi havos libertempon; vi "cxiam" havas libertempon, mi "neniam". Postmorgaux estos festo, "tiam" mi venos. "When" will you come to visit me? "Sometime" I will come, "when" (at what time) I shall have a holiday; you "always" (at all times) have a holiday, I "never" (at no time). (The day) after to-morrow will be a festival (a general holiday); I will come "then" (at that time).

"ie", place. "Kie" estas mia cxapelo? Gxi devas esti "ie", sed mi sercxis gxin "cxie", kaj "nenie" mi povas trovi gxin. Ha, nun mi ekvidas gxin "tie". "Where" is my hat? It must be "somewhere", but I have looked for it "everywhere", and "nowhere" can I find it. Ha, now I see it "there".

"iel", manner. "Kiel" vi faros tion cxi? Mi ne scias; mi "cxiel" provis gxin fari, sed mi "neniel" sukcesis. Johano sukcesis "iel"; eble li faris gxin "tiel". "How" will you do this? I do not know; I have tried in every way to do it, but I have "in no way" (not at all) succeeded. John succeeded "in some way" (somehow); perhaps he did it "so (in such a way)".

"ies", possession. "Kies" devo estas tio cxi? Eble gxi estas "ties"; sendube gxi estas "ies". "Cxies" devo estas "nenies". "Whose" duty is this? Perhaps it is "that one's (person's)"; doubtless it is "somebody's. Everybody's" duty is "nobody's."

"io", thing. "Kio" malplacxas al vi? Nun "nenio" malplacxas al mi, "cxio" estas bona. Antaux tri tagoj "io" tre malplacxis al mi, sed mi ne parolas pri "tio" nun. "What" displeases you? Now "nothing" displeases me, "all" is well. Three days ago "something" greatly displeased me, but I am not speaking about "that" now.

"iom", quantity. "Kiom" da mono vi bezonas? Mi havas "tiom", mi povas prunti al vi "iom", sed ne "cxiom". Se mi pruntus al vi "cxiom", mi mem havus "neniom". "How much" money do you need? I have "so much (that quantity)", I can lend you "some", but not "all". If I were to lend you "all", I myself should have "none".

"iu" denotes individuality, person, or thing specified. "Kiu" estis cxe la balo? "CxIU, kiu" estis invitita, estis tie, "neniu" forestis. "Iu, kiun" mi mem ne konas, venis kun "tiu kiu" vizitis vin hierau. "Who" was at the ball? "Everybody who" had been invited was there, "nobody" was absent. "Somebody, whom" I myself do not know, came with "that person who" visited you yesterday.

It will be seen from these examples that the words beginning with "K" either "ask questions" or "refer" to some person or thing before mentioned. Those beginning with "T" point to a "definite" time, place, etc. Those with "Cx" signify "each" or "every", and in the plural "all". Those without a letter prefixed are "indefinite", meaning some or any; and those with "nen-" are "negative", meaning "no, none".

Grandega hundo metis sur min sian antauxan piedegon, kaj mi de teruro ne sciis, kion fari. Antaux nia militistaro staris granda serio da pafilegoj. En tiu nokto blovis terura ventego. Kun plezurego. Li deziregis denove foriri.

Tuj post la hejto la forno estis varmega, post unu horo gxi estis nur varma, post du horoj gxi estis nur iom varmeta, kaj post tri horoj gxi estis jam tute malvarma. Mi acxetis por la infanoj tableton kaj kelke da segxetoj. En nia lando sin ne trovas montoj, sed nur montetoj. En somero ni trovas malvarmeton en densaj arbaroj. Li sidas apud la tablo kaj dormetas. Sur tiuj cxi vastaj kaj herboricxaj kampoj pasxtas sin grandaj brutaroj, precipe aroj da bellanaj sxafoj. La vagonaro konsistis preskaux nur el personvagonoj. Oni metis antaux mi mangxilaron, kiu konsistis el telero, kulero, trancxilo, forko, glaseto por brando, glaso por vino kaj telertuketo. Post infekta malsano oni ofte bruligas la vestojn de la malsanulo. La malbeno de la profeto staras super la kapo de maldankulo. Post kelkaj minutoj la kuragxulo eliris. Cxiuj sanktuloj, helpu!

LESSON 26.

The following words, which have already been used in the previous lessons, are always placed before nouns or pronouns, to show the relation (of position, etc.) between the thing for which the noun stands and another thing or an action.

al : to, towards.	laux : according to.
apud : beside, near, by.	per : by means of, with.
da : of (indefinite quantity).	post : after, behind.
de : of from, by.	pri : concerning, about.
el : out of.	por : for, for the sake of.
en : in, into, within.	sen : without.
gxis : until, till, as far as.	sur : on, upon.
inter : between, among.	tra : through.
kontraux : against, opposite.	trans : across, on the other side.
kun : (in company) with.	je (has no definite meaning).

(These words are called PREPOSITIONS, which means placed before).

The other simple prepositions are-- anstataux : instead of.	po : at the rate of.

antaux : before.	pro : for (cause), owing to.
cxo : at, with.	preter : past, beyond, by.
cxirkaux : about, around.	spite : in despite of.
krom : besides, except.	sub : under.
malgraux : notwithstanding, in spite of.

The prepositions "anstataux", "antaux" ("ol"), and "por" are also used before Infinitive verbs, as "anstataux diri", instead of saying (to say); "antaux ol paroli", before speaking; "por lerni", in order to learn.

In Esperanto all the prepositions except "je" have a definite meaning, and care must be taken to use the one which conveys the exact sense. The same word cannot be used for "with" in the two sentences "He went with his father" and "He cut it with a knife," or for "about" in "He spoke about his child" and "They stood about the stove." In the first example "with" his father is "kun", in company with, Li iris "kun" sia patro, and "with" a knife is "per", by means of, Li tranxkis gxin "per" tranxkilo. "About," in "about his child," is "pri," concerning, Li parolis "pri" sia infano, but "about," in "about the stove," is "cxirkaux," around, Ili staris "cxirkaux" la forno.

When we cannot decide which is the correct preposition to use in any case, we may use "je," the only preposition which has no special meaning of its own, or the preposition may be left out altogether, and "n" added to the noun or pronoun, provided that no want of clearness ensue (see Lesson 27), as Mi ridas "pro" lia naiveco, or, Mi ridas "je" lia naiveco, or, Mi ridas lian "naivecon", I laugh at his simplicity.

When we wish to express "motion towards" something, and the preposition does not of itself express it, "n" is added to the noun or pronoun, as in the case of adverbs (see Lesson 12), "Li estas en la domo", He is in the house; but, "Li iras en la domon", He is going into the house.

NOTE.--There are three cases in which the noun or pronoun takes "n".

(i.). When it is the "direct object" of the verb, as "Mi vidis lin", I saw him. (ii.). To show "direction", as "Li iris en la gxardenon", He went into the garden. (iii.). When the "preposition" is "left out". This is usually done in the case of "dates" and expressions signifying "duration" of time, as "Georgo Vasxington estis naskita la dudek-duan de Februaro de la jaro mil sepcent tridek du", George Washington was born the 22nd of February, 1732. "Vi restos tie cxi la tutan vivon (dum la tuta vivo)", You will remain here your (the) whole life.

All the prepositions whose meaning allows of it can be used as adjectives, adverbs, etc., by adding the proper endings, as from "antaux", before, we get "antauxa", former, "antauxe", formerly or previously, "antauxen", forward.

Prepositions are also joined to other words, and to prefixes or suffixes, as "antauxdiri", to foretell; "apudmara urbo", a seaside town; "senigi", to deprive of.

Sometimes the preposition is both prefixed to the verb and used after it before the noun, as "Li eliris el la domo, kaj eniris en la gxardenon", He went out of the house, and entered into the garden.

LESSON 27.

Al.

"Al" signifies "to" or "towards" a person or place. It is also used before the noun or pronoun which signifies "person" after such verbs as "give, tell", etc., which take two objects in different relations to the verb, as-- Give (to) him the book, "Donu al li la libron." Tell (to) him the truth, "Diru al li la veron." Write (to) him a letter, "Skribu al li leteron." In such cases we can say "Pardonu lin", Pardon him, if the "thing" object is not mentioned, but we cannot say "Pardonu lin la kulpon", Forgive him his fault; it must be "Pardonu al li la kulpon." The pronoun with "al" is sometimes used instead of the possessive (pronoun) adjective "mia", etc., as "Mi tranxsis al mi la fingron", for "Mi tranxsis mian fingron", I cut my finger. "Sxi kombis al si la harojn," instead of "Sxi kombis siajn harojn," She combed her hair.

"Al" is frequently used as a prefix as well as after the verb, as "aldoni", to add; "alpreni", to adopt; "aligxi", to adhere; "aljugxi", to award.

VOCABULARY.

sxi vidis kaj kio la plej multe placxis al sxi en la unua tago. Eble li al vi pardonos. Sxi ne kredis al siaj propraj oreloj. Li ne sciis, ke al sxi li devas danki la vivon. Si savis al li la vivon. La sorcxistino detrancxis al la virineto de maro la langon.

"Cxe" indicates a certain "place, time", or "point of thought, discourse", etc., as, "Li estis cxe mia patro", He was with my father, or at my father's house. "Cxe la momento", At the moment. "Li estis cxe la pordo", He was at the door, "Cxeesti", To be present.

"Tra" means "through", as "Tra la truo", Through the hole. "Tra la mondo", Through the world.

The difference between "tra", "trans", and "preter" is clearly shown by the sentence "Trapasinte la arbaron, li preterpasis la pregxejon kaj tiam transpasis la riveron per la ponto", Having passed through the wood, he passed by the church, and then passed over the river by the bridge.

Sur la kameno inter du potoj staras fera kaldrono; el la kaldrono, en kiu sin trovas (or "trovigxas") bolanta akvo, eliras vaporo; tra la fenestro, kiu sin trovas (or "trovigxas") apud la pordo, la vaporo iras sur la korton.

La hirundo flugis trans la riveron, cxar trans la rivero sin trovis (or "trovigxis") aliaj hirundoj. Ili povas flugi sur sxipoj trans la maron. "Kial Hanibalo iris trans la Alpoj? Cxar tiam la tunelo ne estis ankoraux preter." Estas neeble, ke ili estu transirintaj trans la oceanon. Cxio transturnigxis la fundo supren.

"Post" means "after" (time), "behind" (place).

Care must be taken in using "antaux" and "post" to arrange the sentence so that there can be no doubt as to whether time or place is referred to. "He came before his father," in place or position, "i.e.", in front of his father, is "Li venis antaux sia patro", but if "before in time" is meant, it must be "Li venis antaux ol lia patro" ("venis"). "Li venis post sia patro" means He came behind his father; if we mean "after his father came" we may use "kiam", and say "Li venis post, kiam lia patro venis".

To express "time past," "ago," "antaux" is used, as "Antaux tri tagoj", Three days ago. "Antaux longe", A long time ago. "Antaux nelonge", Not long ago.

La stelo Venus ekbrulis per envio.

Sxi volis ludi kun ili, sed kun teruro ili forkuris. Kun kia atento sxi auxskultis tiujn cxi rakontojn! La plej bela el ili estis la juna regxido kun la grandaj nigraj okuloj. Tien cxi alnagxis la virineto de maro kun la bela princo. Kun plezuro. Kun cxiu jaro la nombro de la membroj rapide kreskis.

"Pro" means "for, because of, on account of, for the sake of" (cause), as "Li demandis sxin, pro kio sxi ploras", He asked her, for what (reason or cause) she weeps.

Li uzis cxiajn siajn fortojn por kontentigi sian mastron. Por mi estas tute egale, kie ajn mi logxas. Prenu (la pagon) por la kafo.

Li mortis pro (aux, de) malsato. Mi havis tre bonan bienon, kiu estis vendita pro sxuldoj. Pro la cxielo, ne faru tion cxi. Li estis konvinkita, ke li pro si ne devas timi. Pro tio cxi Venus lumas pli forte, ol multaj aliaj steloj. Cxu pro tio, aux cxu pro ia alia kauxzo, mi ne scias.

LESSON 40.

Malgraux. Spite. Po. Je.

"Malgraux" means "in spite of", "notwithstanding", as "Li sukcesis malgraux cxio", He succeeded in spite of everything.

40A.

Se ni bezonas uzi prepozicion, kaj la senco ne montras al ni, kian prepozicion uzi, tiam ni povas uzi la komunan prepozicion "je." Sed estas bone uzadi la vorton "je" kiel eble pli malofte. Anstataux la vorto "je" ni povas ankaux uzi akuzativon sen prepozicio.--Mi ridas je lia naiveco (aux, mi ridas pro lia naiveco; aux mi ridas lian naivecon).--Je la lasta fojo mi vidas lin cxe vi (aux, la lastan fojon).--Mi veturis du tagojn kaj unu nokton.--Mi sopiras je mia perdita felicxo (aux, mian perditan felicxon).--El la dirita regulo sekvas, ke se ni pri ia verbo ne scias, cxu gxi postulas post si la akuzativon (t.e.=tio estas, cxu gxi estas aktiva) aux ne, ni povas cxiam uzi la akuzativon. Ekzemple, ni povas diri "obei al la patro" kaj "obei la patron" (anstataux, "obei je la patro"). Sed ni ne uzas la akuzativon tiam, kiam la klareco de la senco tion cxi malpermesas; ekzemple: ni povas diri "pardoni al la malamiko" kaj "pardoni la malamikon," sed ni devas diri cxiam "pardoni al la malamiko lian kulpon."

The prefix "ge-" signifies "both sexes taken together", as "gepatroj", parents. "Gefratoj", brothers and sisters. "Geregxoj", king and queen (the word formed is, of course, always plural).

The prefix "bo-" denotes "relationship by marriage", as "bopatro", father-in-law; "bofilo", son-in-law.

The prefix "pra-" means "of generations ago, great-, grand-", as, "avo", grandfather; "pra-avo", great-grand-father. It is also used for descendants, as "pra-nepo", great-grandson. "Praa", primitive or primeval.

The suffix "-cxj-" is added to men's names and "-nj-" to women's names to form "pet names", part of the name being left out, as "Petro", Peter; "Pecxjo", Pete. "Klaro", Clara; "Klanjo", Clarrie. "Pacxjo" (from "patro"), papa; "panjo", mamma.

VOCABULARY.

altaro : altar.	gratul- : congratulate.
parenco : relation.	deven- : originate, descend from.
doktoro : doctor (law, etc.).	adres- : address (a letter).
stato : state, condition.	telegraf- : telegraph.

Patro kaj patrino kune estas nomataj gepatroj. Petro, Anno, kaj Elizabeto estas miaj gefratoj. Gesinjoroj N. hodiaux vespere venos al ni. La gefiancxoj staris apud la altaro. Mi gratulis telegrafe la junajn geedzojn. La geregxoj forveturis Kordovon. Sxi edzinigxis kun sia kuzo, kvankam sxiaj gepatroj volis sxin edzinigi kun alia persono.

La patro de mia edzino estas mia bopatro, mi estas lia bofilo, kaj mia patro estas la bopatro de mia edzino. Cxiuj parencoj de mia edzino estas miaj boparencoj, sekve sxia frato estas mia bofrato, sxia fratino estas mia bofratino; mia frato kaj fratino (gefratoj) estas la bogefratoj de mia edzino. La edzino de mia nevo, kaj la nevino de mia edzino estas miaj bonevinoj. Virino, kiu kuracas, estas kuracistino; edzino de kuracisto estas kuracistedzino. La doktoredzino A. vizitis hodiaux la gedoktorojn P. Li ne estas lavisto, li estas lavistinedzo.

La filoj, nepoj kaj pranepoj de regxo estas regxidoj. La hebreoj estas Izraelidoj, cxar ili devenas de Izraelo. Cxevalido estas nematura cxevalo, kokido nematura koko, bovido nematura bovo, birdido nematura birdo. Tiu bela tero trovis sin en tre praa stato.

LESSON 44.

Suffixes -ebl-, -ind-, -em-.

These three suffixes are used to form adjectives.

"-ebl-" means "possible to be" what the word to which it is added signifies, as "Vidi", to see; "videbla", able to be seen; "Auxdi", to hear; "auxdebla", able to be heard, audible; "Movi", to move; "movebla", movable; "Ebla", possible; "eble", possibly.

"-ind-" means "worthy of" what the word denotes, as "Honoro", honour; "honorinda", honourable, worthy of honour; "Honti", to be ashamed; "hontinda", shameful; "Indo", worth; "inda", worthy of.

"-em-" means having an "inclination towards" or "propensity" for, or "being disposed towards" something as "Forgesi", to forget; "forgesema", forgetful; "Servi" to serve; "servema", willing to serve, obliging. "Ema" fond of.

The difference between the three suffixes is shown by the following words:--

"Kredebla", possible of belief; "kredinda", worthy of belief; "kredema", having a tendency to believe readily, credulous.

"Legebla", able to be read; "leginda", worthy of being read; "legema", fond of reading, inclined to read.

VOCABULARY.

sxtalo : steel.	memor- : remember.
spirito : spirit,	ekscit- : excite.
bagatelo : trifle.	vengx- : revenge.
fleks- : bend.	kredeble : probably.
lauxd- : praise.	kompreneble : of course.
renvers- : turn over.

Sxtalo estas fleksebla, sed fero ne estas fleksebla. Ne cxiu kreskajxo estas mangxebla. Vitro estas rompebla kaj travidebla. Via parolo estas tute nekomprenebla, kaj viaj leteroj estas cxiam skribitaj tute nelegeble. La mallumo estas netrapenetrebla. Li rakontis al mi historion tute nekredeblan. Eble mi povos helpi al vi. Cxu vi amas vian patron? Kia demando! kompreneble, ke mi lin amas. Mi kredeble ne povos veni al vi hodiaux, cxar mi pensas, ke mi mem havos hodiaux gastojn. La tablo staras malrekte kaj kredeble baldaux renversigxos. Li faris sian eblon.

Li estas homo ne kredinda. Via ago estas tre lauxdinda. Tiu cxi grava tago restos por mi cxiam memorinda. Gxi estas vesto de granda indo. Gxi ne estas inda je danko. La sxipanaro montrigxas ne inda je sia estro.

Lia edzino estas tre laborema kaj sxparema, sed sxi estas ankaux tre babilema kaj kriema. Li estas tre ekkolerema, kaj ekscitigxas ofte cxe la plej malgranda bagatelo, tamen li estas tre pardonema, li ne portas longe la koleron, kaj li tute ne estas vengxema. Li estas tre kredema, ecx la plej nekredeblajn aferojn, kiujn rakontas al li la plej nekredindaj homoj, li tuj kredas. Li estas tre purema, kaj ecx unu polveron vi ne trovos sur lia vesto. Li estas bonega knabo, sed tre ema kredi spiritojn.

LESSON 45.

Dis-, -um-.

The prefix "dis-" denotes separation or scattering, as "Jxeti", to throw; "disjxeti", to scatter. "Sxiri", to tear; "dissxiri", to tear into bits. "Doni", to give; "disdoni", to distribute.

The suffix "-um-" has no definite meaning. It is used in only a few words, of which the most important are:-- aerumi (from "aero", air), to expose to the air.

ventumi (" "vento", wind), to fan.
kolumo (" "kolo", neck), collar.
manumo (" "mano", hand), cuff.
butonumi (" "butono", button), to button.
gustumi (" "gusto", taste), to taste (something).
komunumo (" "komuna", common), a community.
krucumi (" "kruco", cross), crucify.
malvarmumi (" "malvarma", cold), take cold.
mastrumi (" "mastro", master), keep house.
plenumi (" "plena", full), fulfil.
brulumo (" "bruli", burn), inflammation.
kalkanumo (" "kalkano", heel), heel of boot.

VOCABULARY.

rezultato : result. sxir- : tear.
angulo : angle, corner. kvankam : although.
tolo : linen. simila : similar.
cxemizo : shirt. grava : important.
ating- : attain, reach to.

Ni cxiuj kunvenis por preparoli tre gravan aferon; sed ni ne povis atingi ian rezultaton, kaj ni disiris. Malfelicxo ofte kunigas la homojn, kaj felicxo ofte disigas ilin. Mi dissxiris la leteron, kaj disjxetis gxiajn pecetojn en cxiujn angulojn de la cxambro. Post tio cxi oni disiris hejmen. La vojo disiris en kelkaj direktoj.

Mi volonte plenumis lian deziron. En malbona vetero oni povas facile malvarmumi. Li disbutonumis la superveston. Sxi ludis kun sia ventumilo. Cxemizojn, kolumojn, manumojn, kaj ceterajn similajn objektojn oni nomas tolajxo, kvankam ili ne cxiam estas faritaj el tolo.

The suffixes "-on-, -obi-, -op-," have already been explained in Lesson 9.

-Acx-

A new suffix "-acx-" has gradually come into use during the past few years. Its meaning is well shown in the following examples:--"Domo", house; "domacxo", hovel. "Virino", woman; "virinacxo", hag. "Ridi", to laugh; "ridacxi", to grin (maliciously). "Cxevalo", horse; "cxevalacxo", a sorry nag, a screw. "Obstina", persistent, stubborn; "obstinacxa", pig-headed. "Popolo", a people; "popolacxo", populace. "Morti", to die; "mortacxi", to die the death. "Lingvo", language; "lingvacxo", a jargon.

This suffix should only be used sparingly.

JOINING WORDS. CONJUNCTIONS.

Certain words are used merely to join words or sentences. Those already learned are:-- kaj : and.	cxu : whether.

sed : but.	ke : that.
cxar : because, for.	kvazaux : as if.
ankaux : also.	kvankam : although.
ol : than.	almenaux : at least.

The following are also useful:-- kaj ... kaj : both ... and.	nek ... nek : neither ... nor.

aux ... aux : either ... or.	ecx se : even if.
cxu ... aux : whether ... or.	same kiel : the same as.
cxu ... cxu : whether ... whether.

EXCLAMATIONS. INTERJECTIONS.

The following are simply exclamations of joy grief, surprise, etc.:-- ah! : aha! ah!	kia! : what!

ha! : ah!	bone! : good! all right!
he! : halloo! hey!	brave! : bravo!
hm! : hm! humph!	hura! : hurrah!

nu do! : well (now) then! antauxen! : forward!
ja! : indeed! cxu vere? : is it true?
jen! : there! look! behold! cxu ne? : is it not?
bis! : again! encore!

COMPOUND WORDS.

It is often convenient to form compound words, as "posxtkarto", "forpeli", "cxiuminute", "stacidomo", "senmove", "telertuketo". When this is done, the word expressing the principal idea is placed last.

Generally it is sufficient to use the "root" of the qualifying word, but if the sound or sense requires it, the whole word is taken, as "unutaga" means "of one day"; "unuataga", "of the first day."

* * * * *

ARRANGEMENT OF WORDS IN THE SENTENCE.

In English the sense often depends entirely on the order of the words, e.g., the sentence "John saw George" would mean something quite different if reversed--"George saw John." But in Esperanto, thanks to the accusative "n", the endings "a" and "e" for participles, and the pronoun "si", the order of words may be varied without altering the sense. "Georgon vidis Johano" means exactly the same as "Johano vidis Georgon."

But though the meaning can in most cases be understood whatever the order of the words, it is best to adopt the simplest arrangement, and to follow the natural course of thought, which is, first, that about which we think, then that which we think about it. English students may frame their sentences exactly as they would in their own language. In Esperanto, as in English, the arrangement is sometimes altered, either for emphasis, as "Lauxdata estu Dio!" Praised be God!; or to please the ear, as "Oni min admiras", instead of "Oni admiras min", People admire me.

"Note".--Care must be taken in placing the word "ne." Its usual place is before the verb, when it negatives the whole sentence. Study the effect of placing "ne" in different positions in the sentence "Mi deziras vidi Johanon kaj lian fraton", I wish to see John and his brother:--

(i.). "Mi ne deziras vidi Johanon kaj lian fraton", I do not wish to see John and his brother.

(ii.). "Mi deziras ne vidi Johanon kaj lian fraton", I wish not to see John and his brother, "i.e.", I wish to avoid seeing them.

(iii.). "Mi deziras vidi ne Johanon, sed lian fraton", I wish to see not John, but his brother.

(iv.). "Mi deziras vidi Johanon kaj ne lian fraton", I wish to see John and not his brother.

"Ne tute" means "not quite," while "tute ne" means "not at all."

"Jam ne" means "no longer." "Not yet" is "ankoraux ne".

Words which are already international, such as "microscope, telephone, automobile", etc., are adopted unchanged, except as to the spelling and termination, as "mikroskopo, telefono, austomobilo."

WORDS USED WITH THE OBJECT.

As already said, when an adjective or participle (or a noun) is added to the object simply as a describing word, it takes "n" like the object, as "Li perdis sian novan libron" ("aux", sian libron novan), He lost his new book. "Sxi trankviligis la kriegantan infanon" (aux, "la infanon kriegantan"), She pacified the screaming child. "Li vizitis sian fraton Johanon", He visited his brother John. ("John" shows "which" brother).

But if the adjective, participle, or noun is used not merely to describe, but indirectly to tell something about the object, it does not take "n". A comparison of the following sentences will make this clear:--

1. Li trovis la pomojn maturajn. He found the ripe apples.
Li trovis la pomojn maturaj. He found (that) the apples (were) ripe.
2. Li trovis la kruxon rompitan. He found the broken jug.
Li trovis la kruxon rompita. He found (that) the jug (was) broken.
3. Li kolorigis la drapon rugxan. He dyed the red cloth.
Li kolorigis la drapon rugxa. He dyed the cloth red.
4. Li tranxis (aux faris) la veston tro mallongan.
He cut (or made) the too-short coat (the coat that was too short).
Li tranxis la veston tro mallonga.
He cut the coat (so that it was) too short.
5. Li nomis la knabon mensogisto. He called the boy a liar.

Compare this use of words with the following:--

He made his father angry (or, be angered). "Li kolerigis sian patron", or, "li igis sian patron kolera".

The loss drove him mad. "La perdo frenezigis lin", or, "igis lin freneza".

It rendered the gun useless. "Gxi senutiligis la pafilon", or, "igis la pafilon senutila".

COMPLETE GRAMMAR OF ESPERANTO.

By Dr. Zamenhof.

A.--Alphabet.

Aa, Bb, Cc, Cxcx, Dd, Ee, Ff, Gg, Gxgx, Hh, Hxhx, Ii, Jj, Jxjx, Kk, Ll, Mm, Nn, Oo, Pp, Rr, Ss, Sxsx, Tt, Uu, Uxux, Vv, Zz [Footnote: Names of the letters: a, bo, co, cxo, do, e, fo, go, gxo, ho, hxo, i, jo, jxo, ko, lo, mo, no, o, po, ro, so, sxo, to, u, uxo, vo, zo.]

Remark.--Presses which do not possess the accented letters can use instead of them ch, gh, hh, jh, sh, u.

B.--Rules.

(1) There is no indefinite ARTICLE; there is only a definite article ("la"), alike for all sexes, cases, and numbers.

Remark.--The use of the article is the same as in the other languages. People who find a difficulty in the use of the article need not at first use it at all.

(2) SUBSTANTIVES have the termination "o". To form the plural the termination "j" is added. There are only two cases: nominative and accusative; the latter is obtained from the nominative by the addition of the termination "n". Other cases are expressed by the aid of prepositions (the genitive by "de", the dative by "al", the ablative by "per", or other prepositions according to sense).

(3) The ADJECTIVE ends in "a". Case and number as with the substantive. The Comparative is made by means of the word "pli", the Superlative by "plej"; with the Comparative the conjunction "ol" is used.

(4) The fundamental NUMERALS (they are not declined) are: "unu, du, tri, kvar, kvin, ses, sep, ok, naux, dek, cent, mil." The tens and hundreds are formed by simple junction of the numerals. To mark the ordinal numerals the termination of the adjective is added; for the multiple--the suffix "obl", for the fractional--"on", for the collective--"op", for the distributive--the word "po". Substantival and adverbial numerals can also be used.

(5) Personal PRONOUNS: "mi, vi, li, sxi, gxi" (referring to thing or animal), "si, ni, vi, ili, oni"; the possessive pronouns are formed by the addition of the adjectival termination. Declension is as with the substantives.

(6) The VERB undergoes no change with regard to person or number. Forms of the verb; time "being" (Present) takes the termination "-as;" time "been" (Past) "-is"; time "about to be" (Future) "-os"; the Conditional mood "-us;" the Ordering mood "-u;" the Indefinite "-i." Participles (with an adjectival or adverbial sense): active present "-ant;" active past "-int;" active future "-ont;" passive present "-at;" passive past

"-it;" passive future "-ot." All forms of the passive are formed by the aid of a corresponding form of the verb "esti" and a passive participle of the required verb; the preposition with the passive is "de."

(7) ADVERBS end in "e;" degrees of comparison as with the adjectives.

(8) ALL the PREPOSITIONS require the nominative.

(9) EVERY word is read as it is written.

(10) The ACCENT is ALWAYS on the penultimate syllable.

(11) COMPOUND WORDS are formed by simple junction of the words (the chief word stands at the end); the grammatical terminations are also regarded as independent words.

(12) When another NEGATIVE word is present the word "ne" is left out.

(13) In order to show DIRECTION words take the termination of the accusative.

(14) Each PREPOSITION has a definite and constant meaning; but if we have to use some preposition and the direct sense does not indicate to us what special preposition we are to take, then we use the preposition "je" which has no meaning of its own. Instead of the preposition "je" we can also use the accusative without a preposition.

(15) The so-called FOREIGN WORDS, that is, those which the majority of languages have taken from one source, are used in the Esperanto language without change, merely obtaining the spelling of the latter; but with different words from one root it is better to use unchanged only the fundamental word and to form the rest from this latter in accordance with the rules of the Esperanto language.

(16) The FINAL VOWEL of the substantive and of the article can be dropped and replaced by an apostrophe.

If we need to use a preposition, and the sense does not show us what preposition to use, then we can use the general preposition "je." But it is well to use the word "je" as seldom as possible. The last time I saw him with you I travelled two days and one night. I sigh for my lost happiness. From the said rule it follows that if we do not know as to any verb whether it requires the accusative case after it (that is, whether it is active) or not, we can always use the accusative. For example, we can say "obei al la patro" and "obei la patron" (instead of "obei je la patro"). But we do not use the accusative when the clearness of the sense forbids it; for example, we can say "pardoni al la malamiko" and "pardoni la malamikon," but we must always say "pardoni al la malamiko lian kulpon."

The photographer photographed me, and I sent my photograph to my father. You talk nonsense, my friend. I drank tea, with cake and jam. Water is a fluid. I did not wish to drink the wine, for it had in it a certain muddiness. On the table were various sweetmeats. I ate a tasty omelette.

When I travel anywhere I never take with me much luggage. An ice is a sweet frozen dainty. The whole surface of the lake was covered with floating leaves and various other plants (growths). The timber merchant sells wood, and the joiner makes tables, chairs, and other wooden objects. I use no sort of alcoholics. His old mother carried on the management of the house. "An evil appearance he had," answered the Jew. She thought over the doings of the past day. It is as light as a cobweb. The train of the dress was long. They move like living beings.

He loves this girl on account of her beauty and goodness. His heroism greatly pleased me. I live with them in great friendship. We are, in fact, close to the river. This is the most important quality. Court ceremony necessitates inconvenience. The wealth of this man is great, but his foolishness is still greater.

In these little bottles are various acids--vinegar, sulphuric acid, nitric acid, and others. The acidity of this vinegar is very weak. Your wine is only some abominable acid thing. This great eminence is not a natural mountain. The height of that mountain is not very great.

The house in which one learns is a school, and the house in which one prays is a church. The cook sits in the kitchen. The doctor advises me to go into a vapour-bath. The horse put one hoof on a serpent's nest. The woman used to walk through lovely woods and meadows. He came into his lodging. He stopped by the gate of the monastery.

Russians live in Russia, and Germans in Germany. My writing materials consist of an inkstand, a sand-box, a few pens, a pencil, and a blotter. In my trousers pocket I carry a purse, and in my overcoat pocket I carry a pocket book; a larger portfolio I carry under my arm. Put on the table the sugar-basin, the tea-caddy, and the teapot.

A shop in which one sells cigars, or a room in which one keeps cigars, is a cigar-store; a box or other object in which one keeps cigars is a cigar-case; a little tube in which one puts a cigar when one smokes it is a cigar-holder. A little box in which one keeps pens is a pen-box, and a little stick, on which one holds a pen to write, is a penholder. In the candlestick was a burning candle.

A father and a mother together are named parents. Peter, Anne, and Elizabeth are my brother and sisters. Mr. and Mrs. N. will come to us this evening. The engaged couple stood by the altar. I congratulated the young married pair by telegraph. The king and queen left Cordova. She married (with) her cousin, although her parents wished to marry her to another person.

My wife's father is my father-in-law, I am his son-in-law, and my father is the father-in-law of my wife. All my wife's relations are my relations by marriage, consequently her brother is my brother-in-law, her sister is my sister-in-law; my brother and sister are the brother-in-law and sister-in-law of my wife. The wife of my nephew and the niece of my wife are my nieces by marriage. A woman who treats the sick is a lady doctor; the wife of a doctor is a doctor's wife. Mrs. Dr. A. visited Dr. and Mrs. P. to-day. He is not a laundryman, he is a washerwoman's husband.

Steel is flexible, but iron is not flexible. Not every plant is edible. Glass is breakable and transparent. Your speech is quite incomprehensible, and your letters are always written quite illegibly. The darkness is impenetrable. He related to me a story altogether incredible. Perhaps I can (shall be able to) help you. Do you love your father? What a question! of course (that) I love him. Probably I shall not be able to come to you to-day, for I think that I myself shall have guests to-day. The table stands askew, and will probably soon fall over. He did his best (his possible).

He is a man unworthy of belief. Your action is very praiseworthy. This important day will remain for me for ever memorable. It is a coat of great worth. It is not worthy of thanks. The crew show [themselves] unworthy of their leader.

His wife is very hardworking and economical, but she is also very fond of talking and noisy. He is very irascible, and often becomes excited at the merest trifle; nevertheless he is very forgiving, he does not bear anger long, and he is not at all revengeful. He is very credulous; even the most incredible things, which the most untrustworthy people relate to him, he immediately believes. He is very cleanly, and you will not find even one speck of dust on his coat. He is an excellent boy, but very apt to believe [in] spirits.

We all came together to talk over very important business, but we could not reach any result, and we parted. Misery often unites people, and happiness often separates them. I tore up the letter, and threw its bits into every corner (all corners) of the room. After this they separated for home. The road branched in several directions.

I willingly fulfilled his desire. In bad weather one may easily take cold. He unbuttoned his overcoat. She played with her fan. Shirts, collars, cuffs, and other similar things we call linen, although they are not always made of linen.

Subite, je cxies miro, oni ekvidis la malamatan avarulon starigi tre fortan lignan barilon.

"Sed, amiko," demandis la vilagxanoj, "rakontu kiamaniere vi atingis tion."

"Nu, tre simple," li diris. "Lun matenon mi sendis al la najbaro tri aux kvar ovojn, dirante, ke liaj kokinoj demetis ilin en mia gxardeno. Jam la sekvintan tagon li komencis konstrui la barilon. Tio estas cxiam pli malkara, ol doni okupadon al la advokatoj."

LA HOMA KORPO KAJ LA SENTOJ.

El "Serba Esperantisto."

Petu Johanon, ke li alproksimigxu, ke li pasxu al vi, por ke vi observu la trajtojn de lia vizagxo.

Lia frunto estas alta kun brune blondaj haroj, liaj vangoj estas rondaj, lian mentonon kovras dika barbo, kiu kasxas la gorgxon.

Johanino jam faris longan marsxon, sxi jxus haltis: sxi spiras forte, sxia kolo sin strecxas, sxia brusto sin etendas, kaj skuigxas sxiaj flankoj; sxia koro forte batas, sxia sango rapide kuras en la arterioj kaj vejnoj; sxia hauختo farigxis brula.

Sxi sxajnas laca ne nur muskole, sed nerve kaj cerbe. Diru al sxi, ke sxi ripozu kaj ne restu stare, ke sxi sidigu sin.

Nun sxi sidas: sxi pene klinas siajn krurojn; sxi povas movi nek la genuojn nek la piedojn; ecx la brakoj rigide pendas de la sxultroj; sxi ne plu turnas la kapon: sxi tuj ekdormos.

Baju, baju, baju!...

Unu okuleto de Helenjo dormas, alia rigardas; unu oreleto de Helenjo dormas, alia auxskultas.

Dormu, Helenjo, dormu, belulino; kaj pacxjo rakontos fabelojn. Kredeble, cxiuj estas tie cxi: kato, kaj vilagxa hundo, griza museto, kaj grileto sub la forno, makulkolora sturno en kagxo, kaj malpacema koko.

Dormu, Helenjo,--tuj la fabelo komencigxos. Jen la alta luno jam rigardas en la fenestron; jen straba leporo, kiu lame forkuras; jen lupaj okuloj, kiuj eklumigxas per flavaj fajretoj. Alflugas maljuna pasero al la fenestro, frapas per la beko sur vitron kaj demandas: "Cxu baldaux?" Cxiuj estas cxi tie, cxiuj kolektigxis; kaj cxiuj atendas la fabelon al Helenjo.

EDZINIGXO DE RATINO.

El "Japanaj Rakontoj".

Maljuna rato havis filinon. Gxi volis edzinigi tiun cxi kun iu plej forta en la mondo. Gxi unue iris al la luno, pensante, ke la luno estas la plej forta en la mondo. Sed la luno diris: "Min tre ofte malhelpas la nubo, kaj mi neniel povas forpeli gxin."

Tiam gxi sin turnis al la nubo, pensante, ke la nubo estas pli forta, ol la luno. Sed la nubo diris: "Min cxiam dispelas la vento, kaj mi neniam povas al gxi kontrauxstari."

Trie gxi iris al la vento, pensante, ke la vento estas pli forta, ol la nubo. Sed la vento diris: "La muro staras kontraux mi, kaj mi tute ne povas trapasi gxin."

Fine gxi iris al la muro, pensante, ke la muro estas pli forta, ol la vento. Sed la muro ankaux diris: "Via familio cxiam min mordadas, kaj mi ne povas tion haltigi."

Jen gxi komprenis, ke ratino nur devas edzinigxi kun rato, kaj reveninte hejmen, gxi edzinigis sian filinon kun juna rato de sia najbareco.

LIZI, ELZE, ELIZABET.

El "Hungaraj Rakontoj".

Mi amis nur mian patrinon kaj Lizi, krome neniun en la tuta mondo.

Kun ŝi, kun Lizi, mi jam ligis amikecon, kiam mia malgranda fratino mortis je angino.

Tiam farigxis tre silente en nia domo. Malantaŭe ĉirkaŭ la ĉevalstalo bruas ja la knaboj poste kiel antaŭe, sed al la logxejo ili proksimigxis nur sur la piedpintoj. Ili ne volis ĝxeni la nigre vestitan virinon, kiu sencxese, kvazaŭ senspirite, la funebrajn ĉambrojn trapasxis; de frua mateno ĝxis malfrua vespero, en pensojn profundigxinta, ŝi travagis la logxejon, senripoze kiel la pendolo de l'horlogxo, kvazaŭ ŝi eterne iun aux ion sercxus. Ifoje ŝi malfermis la sxrankojn kaj tirkestojn laŭ vico. Tiam mi ĉxiam vidis en ŝia mano malgrandajn infanorobojn, sxuojn kaj antauxtukojn, kiujn ŝi longe rigardis kaj karesis, por ilin denove remeti kun la pupoj, la skribkajeroj kaj ĉxiuj aliaj objektoj, kiuj iam apartenis al mia malgranda fratino.

Pri mi ŝi tute ne okupigxis--ŝi nun pli amis la mortinton, ol ĉxiujn vivantojn--kaj tamen en mi ĉxiam sxteliris post ŝi. Se mi ifoje ŝxian robon ekprenis, aux ŝxian brakon karesis, por ke ŝi min nur rimarku, ŝi ekrigardis min indiferece per siaj karaj, de nokta plorado lacaj okuloj, aux diris: "Kion vi volas, Janko? Ĉxu mi devas doni al vi orangxojn?"

Ŝi tiam eltiris la tirkeston, kie la orangxoj kusxis, kaj lasis min elekti, kiom mi volis. Kaj mi tute ne volis orangxojn, mi nur estis jxaluza je mia malgranda, mortinta fratino.

VENTEGA NOKTO.

El "Nord-germanaj Rakontoj".

La ventego kriegis kaj bruegis dum la malluma nokto kaj blovege pelis la foliojn antaux si. Kia sonado estis en la aero! De malproksime venas la ventego, el la regiono, kie estas la altaj montoj kaj la granda akvo, el la malvarma nordo. Cxio, kion gxi ekkaptas dumvoje, devas kunflugi. Gxi pelas la foliojn alten, tiel ke ili kirle flugas kaj en sia timo saltas unu super la alia. Jen gxi permesas al ili dum momento rekonsciigxi, ili opinias, ke nun cxesis la sovagxa pelado, ke ili povas trankvile mallevigxi teren--jen la sovagxulo ree ekkaptas ilin kaj la ludo denove komencigxas. Nun gxi estas en la torfejo; tie gxi trovas nenion kun kio gxi povus petoli; tiam gxi atakas pluvnubon kiu jxus volis ekpluvi--pusxegas en gxian flankon, gxis gxi tuj disflugas. Jen la blovulo venas en la arbaron kaj furiozas inter la arboj, kiuj gxemas kaj krakas. Ankoraux salton, kaj nun gxi estas cxe la lerneja domo, kiu staras kasxite en arbetajxoj inter la du vilagxoj. Ho, kiel gxi gxojkriegas ekvidante la malnovan kadukan domon! Tie cxi mi devas enigxi! Per cxuij pordoj gxi bruegas kaj skuas ilin, provante malfermegi ilin. Sed vane. Ecx ne la lignan kovrilon de la truo en la frontono gxi povas desxiri, kvankam la rustigxintaj hokoj preskaux ne plu povas teni gxin. Sed almenaux gxi klakas kaj frapegas per gxi tiom, ke la edzino de la instruisto vekigxas.

EN PIRIN.

El "Bulgaraj Rakontoj".

Klime perdis la vojon, la blovegoj estis kovrintaj cxion: valojn, montetojn, vojojn, kampojn. Li eliris hieraux cxe bona vetero el la vilagxo, kaj nun?... Dum tutaj horoj li vagadis en Pirin-monto kaj li ne scias, kie li trovigxas, kien li iras, kion li renkontos. Li komprenis nur unu: ke malproksime, malproksime li estas de sia vilagxo, en nekonataj montaj dezertoj, en la regno de l'sovagxaj bestoj kaj de la pereco...

Subite li ekvidis tra la krepusko multajn nigrajn ombrojn, kiuj iris senbrue sur la negxo. Kio estas tio cxi? Cxu lupoj? Ili estas tuta aro kaj venas de la dekstra flanko; ili bojas... Li ekkuregas. La malsata aro rapide lin sekvas kun sovagxaj bojoj... Kiom da tempo li kuris, li ne memoras... Antaux li cxiam nudajxo, cxiam dezerto, cxiam negxa kampo. Subite Klime vidas, ke antauxe ekmovigas io, lumaj punktoj brilas kaj lin renkontas: la bestaro elsendis kelkajn lupojn por fermi lian iradon... Klime vidis teruran, neeviteblan morton...

Tiam li ree ekkuregis kiel frenezulo maldekstren, al nova direkto, sur ia krutajxo malsupren, kaj post li la lupoj... Li dufoje implikigxis je sia skarpo, kiu trenis, kaj li ekfalas. Trovigxinte en la valo, Klime gxoje vidis, ke li eniras en ian vilagxon... Kia gxi estas, cxu pomaka, cxu kristana,--li ne pensas, cxar la luparo lin persekutas ecx tien cxi. Gxi iras post liaj kalkanoj... Li ensxovigxis en ian pordegon, kiun, versxajne, la ventego malfermis, kaj li alkuris al la fenestro, kiu lumis. Kaj la lupoj ankaux kuras post li. Klime sxovis malgxentile la pordon kaj eniris en nekonatan domon. Li ekgxemis: li vidis bulgaran, kristanan domon, kaj la sanktfigurujon, kaj antaux gxi la sanktlampeton...la flamo malklare briletis kaj estingigxis ankoraux.
El la krepusko eliris iaj homoj. Li cxirkauxrigardis mirege. Kie li trovigxas?

Subite Klime ekscias, ke li estas en sia hejmo.

La Cxiopovanto estis direktinta liajn vagadojn al lia vilagxo, al lia domo, kiam li pensis, ke li iras en tute malsaman direkton.

SOMERA PLUVADO.

El "Prozo el Danaj-Norvegaj Auxtoroj".

Estis premante varmege, la aero vibris pro varmo, kaj krom tio estis tiel kvieta, nenio alia sin movis, ol la kokcinoj tie sur la urtikoj, kaj kelke da velkitaj folioj, kiuj kusxis sur la herbo kaj kurbigis sin kun etaj ekmovoj, kvazaux kuntiritaj de la sunaj radioj.

Kaj tiu homo sub la kverko, li kusxis spiregante kaj melankolie, senespere li rigardis supren al la cxielo. Li kantetis iom, kaj cedis, fajfis per la busxo kaj cedis ankaux je tio, turnis kaj returnis sin, rigardis malnovan talpan teraltajxeton, kiu tute helgrizigxis pro sekeco. Subite eta, ronda, nigra makulo vidigxis sur la griza tero, ankoraux unu, du, tri, kvar, multaj, ankoraux pliaj, la tuta altajxeto farigxis malhelgriza. La aero estas nur longaj, malhelaj strekoj, la folioj klinigxis kaj balancigxis, sibletoj, plilauxtigxante gxis siblego, sonis,--akvo fluegis teren.

Cxio briletis, fajretis, kraketis. Folioj, branxoj, trunkoj, cxio brilis de akvajxo, cxiu guteto falanta teren, herben, sxtonen, cxien, disrompigxis kaj disxprucis en milojn da etaj perloj. Malgrandaj gutoj pendis tie iom da tempo kaj farigxis grandaj gutoj, malsuprenfalas tien cxi, unuigxis kun aliaj gutoj, formis fluetojn, malaperis en sulketojn, enfluis grandajn truojn kaj elfluis malgrandajn, forkondukis polvon, lignajxetojn kaj foliopecojn, fiksigxis sur rifojn kaj denove liberigxis, turnigxis kaj ree surrifigxis. Foliojn, ne estintajn kune de la tempo, kiam ili estis burxonoj, kolektis la akvajxo; musko, neniigita de sekeco, eksxvelis kaj farigxis mola, cxifa, verda kaj sukplena; kaj sximo kiu preskaux farigxis polvo, disvastigxis en graciaj makuloj, kun brilo kiel silko. La konvolvoloj lasis plenigi siajn blankajn kalikojn gxis la rando, interpusxis ilin kaj versxis la akvon sur la kapojn de l' urtikoj. La dikaj, nigraj arbarlimakoj afablege rampis antauxen kaj rigardis danke la cxielon.

Kaj la homo? La nudkapa homo staris meze en la pluvo, lasante la gutojn sibli en harojn, brovojn okulojn, nazon, busxon, kraketis per la fingroj je la pluvo, iom levis iafoje la piedojn, kvazaux li intencis danci, ekskuis iam kaj iam sian kapon, kiam tro multe da akvo estis en la haroj, plengorgxe kantis senpripensante tion, kion li kantis, tiel plene la pluvado lin okupis.

KION NE KOMPRENAS LA HIRUNDOJ KAJ PAPILIOJ.

El "Pola Antologio".

... Iom pli malproksime kusxis flava grenkampo. Malalta barilo apartigis gxin de l' konstruajxo kaj de l' malgranda placeto antaux ili.

La barilo formis angulon kaj en la loko, kie kunigxis du gxiaj oblikvaj duonoj, gxi havis pordegon, altan, largxan kaj en tiu momento tute malfermitan.

Ni proksimigxis al la malalta barilo. Anjo ne havis ankoraux suficxe da tempo por apogi al gxi sian ombrelon kaj jam en la flava domo oni malfermis la pordon kaj viro starigxis cxe la sojlo kaj lauxte demandis:

--Cxu vi iras eksterlandon?

Ni komprenis. La barilo, malzorge konstruita el kurbaj bastonoj, estis io pli grava, ol limo de kampara proprajxo...

Cxi tiu barilo apartigis du naciojn, du landojn, du civilizaciojn.

La sekalo, kreskanta post gxi, estis jam germana sekalo; la cejanoj, kiuj, kiel bluaj lumetoj, bruletis inter la spikoj, estis jam germanaj cejanoj.

Germana estis ecx la vento, fluganta de tie kune kun la mielaodoro de l'konvolvoloj...

Kompreneble, Anjo devis rifuzi al si la ricxigon de sia bukedo per germanaj floroj kaj sxi tuj sciigis pri gxi la lauxte demandantan viron.

Li reigxis domon trankviligxinta, sed sendube dek kelkaj paroj da viglaj, kvankam nevideblaj okuloj observis cxiujn niajn movojn.

Kun stranga sento ni komencis rigardi cxirkauxe.

--Kial?--demandis Anjo, largxe malfermante la okulojn--sekve la spiko, kiu elkreskis tie cxi el la grajno alportita de tie de la vento, estas nia, sed milionoj da aliaj spikoj, gxiaj fratoj, estas fremdaj nur tial, ke ili kreskas unu pasxon pli malproksime?

Mi penis klarigi al sxi, ke tio cxi estas tute natura, ecx necesega.

--Por kiu?

Anstataux respondo mi levis la sxultrojn.

Okupataj de la penso pri la divido, ni turnis la okulojn al la cxielo, sercxante ankaux sur gxi liman linion.

Sed la cxielo estis nur unu, nedividita.

Ni rigardis la sunon.

Ankaux la suno estis nur unu, nedividita.

En la sama momento papilio, kiu sidis proksime de ni sur la barilo kaj jen etendis, jen altiris siajn rugxajn flugiletojn kun argenta subajxo, rapide levigxis kaj transflugis al la germana flanko.

Gxi longe flirtis tie super la balancigxantaj spikoj kaj trovinte amikon aux amikino ankoraux pli trankvile revenis.

Samtempe kelke da hirundoj, antauxsentante proksimigxon de fulmotondro, komencis kun lauxta pepado rondflugi malproksimen kaj senpune trans la limon...

-- Vi vidas!--ekkriis Anjo kun infana triumfo.-- La hirundoj kaj papilioj no konsentas la "necesecon," pri kiu vi tiel sage parolis.

Cxi tiuj senkonsideraj vortoj malgxojigis min.

-- Ah, Anjo, Anjo!--diris mi riprocxe,--cxu vi forgesis, ke la homo estas pli sagxa kreitajxo, ol la flirtemaj birdoj kaj papilioj senpripensaj?...

PRINTEMPO VENOS.

Se la naturo rigidigxas
De prem' de l' vintro frostiganta,
Se tute per la negx' kovrigxas
Je longe tero ekdormanta,
Amiko kara! vi ne ploru:
Printempo venos kaj somero,
Ke la naturo ree floru,
Ke verdu, revivigxu tero.

LA VOJO.

Tra densa mallumo briletas la celo,
Al kiu kuragxe ni iras.
Simile al stelo en nokta cxielo,
Al ni la direkton gxi diras.
Kaj nin ne timigas la noktaj fantomoj
Nek batoj de l' sorto, nek moko de l' homoj
Cxar klara kaj rekta kaj tre difinita
Gxi estas, la voj' elektita.

Nur rekte, kuragxe, kaj ne flankigxante
Ni iru la vojon celitan!
Ecx guto malgranda, konstante frapante,
Traboras la monton granitan.
"L' espero, l' obstino", kaj "la pacienco"--
Jen estas la signoj, per kies potenco
Ni pasxo post pasxo, post longa laboro,
Atingos la celon en gloro.

Ni semas kaj semas, neniam lacigxas,
Pri l' tempoj estontaj pensante.
Cent semoj perdigxas, mil semoj perdigxas,-- Ni semas kaj semas konstante.
"Ho, cxesu!" mokante la homoj admonas,--
"Ne cxesu, ne cxesu!" en kor' al ni sonas:
"Obstine antauxen! La nepoj vin benos, Se vi pacience eltenos."

Se longa sekeco aux ventoj subitaj
Velkantajn foliojn desxiras,
Ni dankas la venton, kaj, repurigataj,
Ni forton pli fresxan akiras.
Ne mortos jam nia bravega anaro,
Gxin jam ne timigas la vento, nek staro,
Obstine gxi pasxas, provita, hardita,
Al cel' unu fojon signita!

Nur rekte, kuragxe kaj ne flankigxante
Ni iru la vojon celitan!
Ecx guto malgranda, konstante frapante,
Traboras la monton granitan.
L' espero, l' obstino, kaj la pacienco--
Jen estas la signoj, per kies potenco
Ni pasxo post pasxo, post longa laboro,
Atingos la celon en gloro.

EL LA PAROLO DE D-RO. L. L. ZAMENHOF.
EN LA GUILDHALL, URBO LONDONO,
La 2lan de Auxgusto, 1907.

. . . La dua kulpigo, kiun ni ofte devas auxdi, estas tio, ke ni esperantistoj estas malbonaj patriotoj. Cxar tiuj esperantistoj, kiuj traktas la esperantismon kiel ideon, predikas reciprokan justecon kaj fratecon inter la popoloj kaj cxar laux la opinio de la gentaj sxovinistoj patriotismo konsistas en malamo kontraux cxio, kio ne estas nia, tial ni laux ilia opinio estas malbonaj patriotoj, kaj ili diras, ke la esperantistoj ne amas sian patrujon. Kontraux tiu cxi mensoga, malnobla kaj kalumnia kulpigo ni protestas plej energie, ni protestas per cxuiuj fibroj de nia koro! . . .

Vi staras nun antaux miaj okuloj, mia kara Litovujo, mia malfelicxa patrujo, kiun mi neniam povas forgesi, kvankam mi forlasis vin kiel juna knabo. Vi, kiun mi ofte vidas en miaj songxoj, vi, kiun neniam alia parto de la tero iam povos anstatauxi en mia koro, vi atestu, kiu vin pli multe, pli kore kaj pli sincere amas: cxu mi, idea esperantisto, kiu revis pri frateco inter cxuiuj viaj logxantoj, kvankam mi devis bedauxrinde forlasi vin, simile al multaj centoj da miloj da aliaj viaj filoj--aux cxu tiuj personoj, kiuj deziras, ke vi apartenu nur al ili, kaj cxuiuj aliaj viaj filoj estu rigardataj kiel fremduloj aux sklavo! Ho patriotismo, patriotismo, kiam fine la homoj lernos kompreni gxustevian sencon! Kiam via sankta nomo cxesos esti armilo en la manoj de diversaj malhonestuloj! Kiam fine cxiu homo ricevos la rajton kaj la eblon algluigxi per sia tuta koro al tiu peco da tero, kiu lin naskis!

Longe dauxros ankoraux malluma nokto sur la tero, sed ne eterne gxi dauxros. Venos iam la tempo, kiam la homoj cxesos esti lupoj unuj kontraux aliaj. Anstataux konstante batali inter si, elsxiri la patrujon unuj al la aliaj, perforte altrudi al si reciproke siajn lingvojn kaj morojn, ili vivos inter si pace kaj frate, en plena interkonsento ili laboros sur la tero, sur kiu ili vivas, kaj kontraux tiuj krudaj fortoj de la naturo, kiuj ilin cxuijn egale atakas. Kaj kune kaj interkonsente ili celados cxuijn al unu vero, al unu felicxo. Kaj se iam venos tiu felicxa tempo, gxi estos la frukto de konstanta kaj senlaca laborado de tiuj homoj, kiujn vi vidas nun en cxi tiu cxambrego kaj kies nomo, ankoraux tre malmulte konata kaj tre malmulte sxatata, estas "esperantistoj."

FOREWORD TO SUPPLEMENTARY VOCABULARY.

As this Vocabulary is intended for those who have worked through the preceding lessons, it is not a full vocabulary, but only supplementary to those already given, and the words contained in those are, as a rule, not repeated here.

In order to get in as many root words as possible, derived words and the second word of a pair (e.g., male or female, opposites, the action and the tool, the animal and its young, etc.) are generally omitted; the simple word or one of the pair being found, the other word is to be formed from it by means of the proper word-ending, prefix or suffix.

In English there are often several words to express the same or nearly the same meaning. Want of space prevents these being all included; the most important or most commonly used word has therefore been chosen; for instance, "mercury", "tranquil", "diaphanous", "suffocate", "salve", "renown", "fiddle", are not to be found, but "quicksilver", "calm", "translucent", "smother", "ointment", "fame", "violin", are there.

A most valuable help to the student is a good English dictionary, and if this gives the derivation of the words, the interest of the study is greatly increased. The difficulty often is, not to find the right Esperanto word, but to know exactly what the English word or phrase means. It is the experience of most Esperantists that in learning Esperanto their knowledge of their own language has become much more thorough. [Footnote: A remark made by a student during one lesson was "Well, if we don't learn Esperanto, we shall learn English."] For this reason and also that this language cannot be learned simply as a matter of rote, but demands the exercise of the thinking and reasoning powers, [Footnote: To convince an opponent or a doubter of this, tell him that "utila" means "useful," and "mal" denotes the contrary; then ask what "malutila" means. The answer will almost certainly be "useless." Then show that the contrary of a good quality is not merely the absence of that quality, but is a bad quality, and therefore the contrary of "useful" is "harmful."] Esperanto ought to be taught in all schools.

 END OF THE PROJECT GUTENBERG EBOOK THE ESPERANTO TEACHER ***

This file should be named esptr10.txt or esptr10.zip

Corrected EDITIONS of our eBooks get a new NUMBER, esptr11.txt

VERSIONS based on separate sources get new LETTER, esptr10a.txt

Produced by David Starner, Tiffany Vergon, William Patterson and the Online Distributed Proofreading Team

Project Gutenberg eBooks are often created from several printed editions, all of which are confirmed as Public Domain in the US unless a copyright notice is included. Thus, we usually do not keep eBooks in compliance with any particular paper edition.

We are now trying to release all our eBooks one year in advance of the official release dates, leaving time for better editing. Please be encouraged to tell us about any error or corrections, even years after the official publication date.

Please note neither this listing nor its contents are final til midnight of the last day of the month of any such announcement. The official release date of all Project Gutenberg eBooks is at Midnight, Central Time, of the last day of the stated month. A preliminary version may often be posted for suggestion, comment and editing by those who wish to do so.

Most people start at our Web sites at:

<http://gutenberg.net> or

<http://promo.net/pg>

These Web sites include award-winning information about Project Gutenberg, including how to donate, how to help produce our new eBooks, and how to subscribe to our email newsletter (free!).

Those of you who want to download any eBook before announcement can get to them as follows, and just download by date. This is also a good way to get them instantly upon announcement, as the indexes our cataloguers produce obviously take a while after an announcement goes out in the Project Gutenberg Newsletter.

<http://www.ibiblio.org/gutenberg/etext03> or

<ftp://ftp.ibiblio.org/pub/docs/books/gutenberg/etext03>

Or /etext02, 01, 00, 99, 98, 97, 96, 95, 94, 93, 92, 91 or 90

Just search by the first five letters of the filename you want, as it appears in our Newsletters.

Information about Project Gutenberg (one page)

We produce about two million dollars for each hour we work. The time it takes us, a rather conservative estimate, is fifty hours to get any eBook selected, entered, proofread, edited, copyright searched and analyzed, the copyright letters written, etc. Our projected audience is one hundred million readers. If the value per text is nominally estimated at one dollar then we produce $2 million dollars per hour in 2002 as we release over 100 new text files per month: 1240 more eBooks in 2001 for a total of 4000+ We are already on our way to trying for 2000 more eBooks in 2002 If they reach just 1-2% of the world's population then the total will reach over half a trillion eBooks given away by year's end.

The Goal of Project Gutenberg is to Give Away 1 Trillion eBooks!
This is ten thousand titles each to one hundred million readers, which is only about 4% of the present number of computer users.

Here is the briefest record of our progress (* means estimated):

The Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation has been created to secure a future for Project Gutenberg into the next millennium.

We need your donations more than ever!

As of February, 2002, contributions are being solicited from people and organizations in: Alabama, Alaska, Arkansas, Connecticut, Delaware, District of Columbia, Florida, Georgia, Hawaii, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maine, Massachusetts, Michigan, Mississippi, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New Mexico, New York, North Carolina, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Vermont, Virginia, Washington, West Virginia, Wisconsin, and Wyoming.

We have filed in all 50 states now, but these are the only ones that have responded.

As the requirements for other states are met, additions to this list will be made and fund raising will begin in the additional states.
Please feel free to ask to check the status of your state.

In answer to various questions we have received on this:

We are constantly working on finishing the paperwork to legally request donations in all 50 states. If your state is not listed and you would like to know if we have added it since the list you have, just ask.

While we cannot solicit donations from people in states where we are not yet registered, we know of no prohibition against accepting donations from donors in these states who approach us with an offer to donate.

International donations are accepted, but we don't know ANYTHING about how to make them tax-deductible, or even if they CAN be made deductible, and don't have the staff to handle it even if there are ways.

Donations by check or money order may be sent to:

Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation
PMB 113
1739 University Ave.
Oxford, MS 38655-4109

Contact us if you want to arrange for a wire transfer or payment method other than by check or money order.

The Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation has been approved by the US Internal Revenue Service as a 501(c)(3) organization with EIN [Employee Identification Number] 64-622154. Donations are tax-deductible to the maximum extent permitted by law. As fund-raising requirements for other states are met, additions to this list will be made and fund-raising will begin in the additional states.

We need your donations more than ever!

Why is this "Small Print!" statement here? You know: lawyers.

They tell us you might sue us if there is something wrong with your copy of this eBook, even if you got it for free from someone other than us, and even if what's wrong is not our fault. So, among other things, this "Small Print!" statement disclaims most of our liability to you. It also tells you how you may distribute copies of this eBook if you want to.

BEFORE!* YOU USE OR READ THIS EBOOK

By using or reading any part of this PROJECT GUTENBERG-tm eBook, you indicate that you understand, agree to and accept this "Small Print!" statement. If you do not, you can receive a refund of the money (if any) you paid for this eBook by sending a request within 30 days of receiving it to the person you got it from. If you received this eBook on a physical medium (such as a disk), you must return it with your request.

ABOUT PROJECT GUTENBERG-TM EBOOKS

This PROJECT GUTENBERG-tm eBook, like most PROJECT GUTENBERG-tm eBooks, is a "public domain" work distributed by Professor Michael S. Hart through the Project Gutenberg Association (the "Project"). Among other things, this means that no one owns a United States copyright on or for this work, so the Project (and you!) can copy and distribute it in the United States without permission and without paying copyright royalties. Special rules, set forth below, apply if you wish to copy and distribute this eBook under the "PROJECT GUTENBERG" trademark.

Please do not use the "PROJECT GUTENBERG" trademark to market any commercial products without permission.

To create these eBooks, the Project expends considerable efforts to identify, transcribe and proofread public domain works. Despite these efforts, the Project's eBooks and any medium they may be on may contain "Defects". Among other things, Defects may take the form of incomplete, inaccurate or corrupt data, transcription errors, a copyright or other intellectual property infringement, a defective or damaged disk or other eBook medium, a computer virus, or computer codes that damage or cannot be read by your equipment.

LIMITED WARRANTY; DISCLAIMER OF DAMAGES

But for the "Right of Replacement or Refund" described below, [1] Michael Hart and the Foundation (and any other party you may receive this eBook from as a PROJECT GUTENBERG-tm eBook) disclaims all liability to you for damages, costs and expenses, including legal fees, and [2] YOU HAVE NO REMEDIES FOR NEGLIGENCE OR UNDER STRICT LIABILITY, OR FOR BREACH OF WARRANTY OR CONTRACT, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO INDIRECT, CONSEQUENTIAL, PUNITIVE OR INCIDENTAL DAMAGES, EVEN IF YOU GIVE NOTICE OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES.

If you discover a Defect in this eBook within 90 days of receiving it, you can receive a refund of the money (if any) you paid for it by sending an explanatory note within that time to the person you received it from. If you received it on a physical medium, you must return it with your note, and such person may choose to alternatively give you a replacement copy. If you received it electronically, such person may choose to alternatively give you a second opportunity to receive it electronically.

THIS EBOOK IS OTHERWISE PROVIDED TO YOU "AS-IS". NO OTHER WARRANTIES OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, ARE MADE TO YOU AS TO THE EBOOK OR ANY MEDIUM IT MAY BE ON, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE.

Some states do not allow disclaimers of implied warranties or the exclusion or limitation of consequential damages, so the above disclaimers and exclusions may not apply to you, and you may have other legal rights.

INDEMNITY

You will indemnify and hold Michael Hart, the Foundation, and its trustees and agents, and any volunteers associated with the production and distribution of Project Gutenberg-tm texts harmless, from all liability, cost and expense, including legal fees, that arise directly or indirectly from any of the following that you do or cause: [1] distribution of this eBook, [2] alteration, modification, or addition to the eBook, or [3] any Defect.

DISTRIBUTION UNDER "PROJECT GUTENBERG-tm"

You may distribute copies of this eBook electronically, or by disk, book or any other medium if you either delete this "Small Print!" and all other references to Project Gutenberg, or:

[1] Only give exact copies of it. Among other things, this requires that you do not remove, alter or modify the eBook or this "small print!" statement. You may however, if you wish, distribute this eBook in machine readable binary, compressed, mark-up, or proprietary form, including any form resulting from conversion by word processing or hypertext software, but only so long as EITHER:

[*] The eBook, when displayed, is clearly readable, and does not contain characters other than those intended by the author of the work, although tilde (~), asterisk (*) and underline () characters may be used to convey punctuation intended by the author, and additional characters may be used to indicate hypertext links; OR

[*] The eBook may be readily converted by the reader at no expense into plain ASCII, EBCDIC or equivalent form by the program that displays the eBook (as is the case, for instance, with most word processors);

OR

[*] You provide, or agree to also provide on request at no additional cost, fee or expense, a copy of the eBook in its original plain ASCII form (or in EBCDIC or other equivalent proprietary form).

[2] Honor the eBook refund and replacement provisions of this "Small Print!" statement.

[3] Pay a trademark license fee to the Foundation of 20% of the gross profits you derive calculated using the method you already use to calculate your applicable taxes. If you don't derive profits, no royalty is due. Royalties are payable to "Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation" the 60 days following each date you prepare (or were legally required to prepare) your annual (or equivalent periodic) tax return. Please contact us beforehand to let us know your plans and to work out the details.

WHAT IF YOU WANT TO SEND MONEY EVEN IF YOU DON'T HAVE TO?

Project Gutenberg is dedicated to increasing the number of public domain and licensed works that can be freely distributed in machine readable form.

The Project gratefully accepts contributions of money, time, public domain materials, or royalty free copyright licenses. Money should be paid to the:
"Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation."

If you are interested in contributing scanning equipment or software or other items, please contact Michael Hart at:
